Enrollment Decline Impact On Finances Not Yet Assessed

Bill Byrd slowly makes a move as T.S. Stevenson, Jr., looks on in deep thought. Chess is becoming more popular everywhere in the wake of the international match in Iceland recently.

Almost 800 fewer students have registered for classes this fall at West Texas State University, but officials say they cannot yet evaluate the financial impact the drop in enrollment will cause.

Dr. Donald Cates, registrar and dean of admissions, said 6,415 students had registered through late registration hours Saturday.

The figure compares with a 7,179 figure which reflected the number of students enrolled at a comparable period in the fall of 1971.

Total enrollment last fall was 7,351.

Cates expects total enrollment this fall to be only slightly above the 6,415 mark.

Enrollment at the university hit a peak in the fall of 1969 when 7,935 students registered for attendance. Since that semester, enrollments have steadily declined. The number fell to 7,905 in 1970 and 7,351 in 1971.

Cates said several areas in the university reflect increases in enrollment this term. These are primarily in industrial education, sociology, chemistry and nursing.

Accurate figures on enrollment breakdown—by class and by course—will not be available until after the 12th class day. And, until that time, no university official will be able to fully assess the reasons for the drop in enrollment.

WTSU Financial Vice President Virgil Henson said Monday he won't be able to determine the financial impact of the drop in enrollment until after the 12th class day report.

He said the university's funding is based on the number of semester credit hours students take and not on a head count number of students.

"It may well be that this is a drop in part-time students," he said. "We may be up in full-time people."

If, in fact, the WTSU enrollment shows an increase in full-time students it is possible the university state appropriation might be increased, also.

"If it turns out our semester credit hour total is really down, it will affect our appropriation for the legislature," he said.

Henson cited the possibility that more students might be retained through the spring semester and this would have a positive effect on funding.

"I think some people are being scared more than they should be," Henson said, in referring to the enrollment decrease. "We may not be down in semester credit hours."

Henson said the decrease in students will have no effect on the university's ability to repay outstanding bonds issued for construction of the activities center. Student fees pay part of the bond debt.

"We had a very safe margin on that," he said. "Now, we just don't have as much cushion, but we won't have any problem meeting the payments."

University officials began a small-scale effort last year to recruit students to WTSU. They said, though, they felt the effort would have little if any effect on enrollment this fall.

A special committee to study recruitment possibilities began recently on campus.

Registration Hits Record In County

With the deadline only a month away, voters in Randall County have already registered to cast their ballots in the November election in record numbers.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton said most recent figures indicate that 24,464 residents have registered to vote.

Registration continues through Oct. 7 for the November 7 election.

Previous high for registration in the county was 22,635 in 1968. "We're already ahead and by Oct. 7, I suspect we'll have 27,000 registered," Hutton said.

In anticipation of this number, Hutton is ordering ballots and other voting material in lots of 30,000.

The November balloting will be the first national election in which residents 18 years of age

This is just part of what the Spearman Lynx defenders will be facing when they go against Canyon's Eagles Friday night in Kimbrough Stadium. Sammy Kerbel, a 210 pound senior, will start at center and Bill Moore, a 190-pound senior, will start at quarterback for the Eagles as they open their season here.

Junk Auto Ordinance Passed Despite Protests

Canyon City commissioners passed a strict junk car ordinance Tuesday night, but only after an hour of discussion with Commissioner Felix Pierce and a local resident contesting the ordinance.

The new law, which parallels one on the state books and which would become effective in at least 24 days, places concise strictures on owners of junk vehicles in the city.

Pierce voted against the ordinance, contending it denies the car owner the right to own property and do with that property as he wishes.

"If a man owns his property, I think he ought to be allowed to keep it and that's why I won't vote for the ordinance," Pierce said.

The ordinance outlines procedures which may be used by the city to impound junk cars which do not comply with the law.

Charles Sykes appeared before the commission, complaining that the ordinance would cause financial hardship to residents who are rebuilding cars in the city.

The ordinance states that it is unlawful for any person to have a junked car on the real property of another person or on a public street and that it is unlawful for any person who owns property to allow a junked car to be located on his property.

If a property owner wants to have a junked car on his property he must put the car inside either a five-foot solid fence or a garage.

The ordinance also declares junked cars a public nuisance "detrimental to the safety and welfare of the general public, tending to reduce the value of private property, to invite vandalism, to create fire hazards, by producing urban blight."

The ordinance contains a specific procedure to be used before a junked car could be impounded.

City Manager George Loudder said that in just one section of Canyon 68 junked cars appear to fit the definition in the ordinance.

He said he has contacted wrecking service which will provide

Hunsley Is Honored For Rotary Tenure

A long-time Canyon developer, Arch Hunsley, has been honored in this month's issue of The Rotarian, publication of Rotary International for a perfect 46-year attendance record.

Hunsley is one of 27 men in more than 1,000 Rotary Clubs throughout the world honored for perfect attendance.

Hunsley hasn't missed a Rotary Club meeting in 46 years. In attendance, he is surpassed, according to the magazine, by only five other Rotarians, who have perfect slates for as many as 52 years.

During ceremonies last week at two Amarillo Rotary Clubs, Hunsley was honored for his record.

Hunsley has been a member of the Canyon Rotary Club since the mid-1940s. He has been a member of Rotary since he first joined the Amarillo club in October 1946.

Rotary Club attendance rules allow members, who have missed meetings at their home clubs, to make up those missed meetings at other area clubs.

So, while Hunsley has missed meetings in Canyon, he has made up those meetings in various towns throughout the Panhandle.

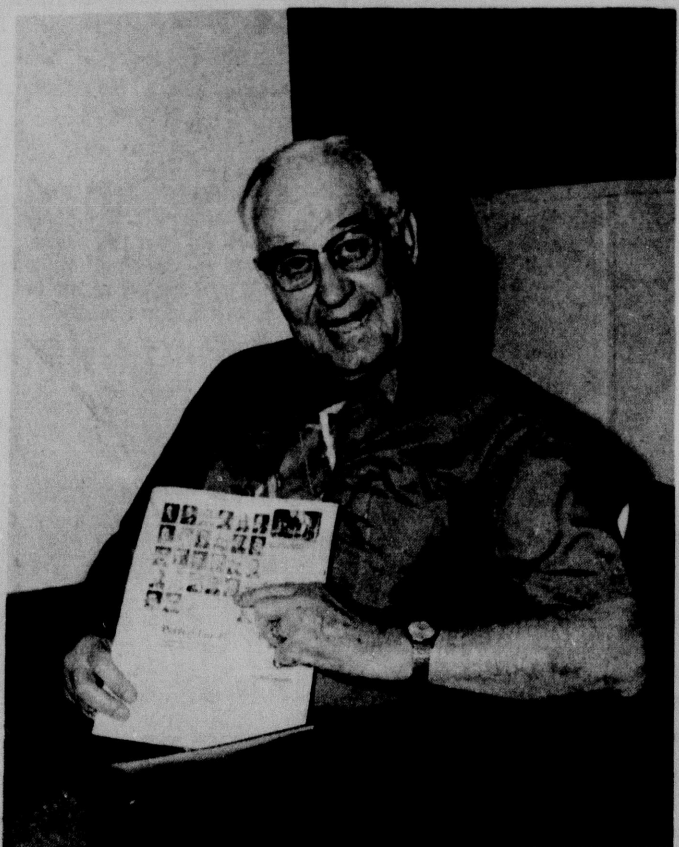

In fact, during his 46-year membership, Hunsley said he's made up meetings in Canada, and many of the 48 continental United States.

Hunsley said he was a traveling salesman for four years but still managed to keep his attendance record clean.

"I sometimes made three club meetings in a week," he said. "I've made many and many a town."

The Canyon resident said he never really had the intention of keeping a perfect attendance record.

"It's the obligation of every Rotarian to keep up," he said. "You can't enjoy the programs if you don't come."

Canyon Rotarian Arch Hunsley shows his picture in the September issue of the Rotarian, publication of Rotary International. Hunsley was honored in the issue for a perfect attendance record for 46 years as a member of Rotary.

Lynx To Test Canyon Strength Friday

Speedy Spearman First Foe For Canyon

Four years ago, Clark Mires, then a Canyon assistant football coach, was a prophet of doom.

In fact, Mires became famous for weekly sob stories about how badly his Canyon High junior varsity team was going to be beaten.

Wringing his hands and with a tear in his eye, Mires would tell Canyon Booster Club members that all hope was lost for his team.

It so happened that Mire's junior varsity team was almost singularly outstanding as it romped past foe after foe for a perfect season.

This year, the tables are turned, and Mires is still singing the blues as head coach of the Spearman Lynx.

His blues have a hopeful air, though, as he revs up his team to come to Canyon Friday night for a season opener against Canyon's Eagles.

While you couldn't say Ron Mills is joining Mire's song, he is cautious in his assessment of Canyon's chances against the Lynx.

This fall's opener begins at 8 p.m. in Kimbrough Stadium in Canyon.

"Spearman looks strong," Mills says. "They just whipped the number one team in Class A in Oklahoma in scrimmage."

"They've got experience and size and speed."

It'll be the first in a tough schedule of games for the Eagles, who are defending district champions.

Even so, Mills is pleased with his Eagles, and their recent performance in scrimmage against Friona.

"The first team defense only gave up six first downs in our two scrimmages," Mills said. "The offense moved the ball well Friday night. We averaged seven yards per carry."

The Canyon boys are high-spirited during this final week of practice before the season begins.

One seasoned starter said Tuesday that Monday's practice "was the best practice we've had since I've been here."

The Eagles return four offensive and four defensive starters to the line-up this fall.

And, experience could be a major factor in Friday night's tilt. The Lynx return 10 defensive starters and nine offensive starters to their lineup.

"We shouldn't beat Canyon," Mires says, raising memories from his Canyon JV days. "I'm serious. We shouldn't be able to beat them, but if we do beat them we shouldn't lose a game all season."

Mires feels his team has a strong chance to win their district, providing injuries don't interfere.

"I think we have good speed and we throw the ball well," he said.

The speedster and ball thrower is Mike Floyd, the defending 100-yard dash champion for that district. Floyd has run the 100 in 9.8, and he'll be working from the slot-T formation to unleash his passes.

Mires said his team may be

Trustees Study Financial Maze

School board members stepped into the confusing world of formulas, indices and abbreviations Tuesday night when they were led through a three-hour mental tour of the school district's financing.

"I know it must be confusing to you," Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board at one point, "because even those of us who are familiar with it have trouble."

In the middle of the lesson in school-state-district financing, the board took a breather to examine once again the proposed $2.6 million 1972-73 budget.

The budget was altered for presentation Tuesday to include $30,000 of additional funds made available when school board members hiked district taxes last week. The $30,000 is budgeted for use on special projects.

A budget hearing was scheduled for Sept. 19 for final review of the proposed budget.

Tax Assessor-Collector Conway Kuykendall started off Tuesday night's marathon finance session with a review of tax office operations.

Kuykendall presented maps and statistics to show how tax valuations for property in the district are figured.

He said houses are graded—according to structure, size, and accessories—from A* to E* for taxing purposes.

Land is also graded according to type and use of soil.

Kuykendall said mobile home taxes are figured according to size and cost, and age.

"Mobile homes are really growing here," he said. "There are 18 mobile home parks in the county and 648 mobile homes in the district."

Under questioning by Board President Dudley Moore, Kuykendall said he believes a sufficient tax base exists in the district to allow for future budgets to come.

After the three-hour fact and figure session, the board members

Sophomores Now Make Up Almost Half Of Buffalo Team

The old saying of a college team losing a game for every sophomore it starts may be true, but West Texas State University football coach Gene Mayfield has his fingers crossed with hopes that the saying is far from true.

In fact, Mayfield would certainly be glad if just the opposite is true. Should the Buffaloes line up against Drake in Des Moines, Ia., today instead of Sept. 16, they would probably have 10 sophomores in the starting line-up on either offense or defense.

After Saturday's scrimmage, the Buffaloes have five starters on offense who are sophomores and five on defense.

The starters on offense among the first-year varsity players are tight end Merced Solis of Mission, guard Jim Jeffers of Hobbs, N.M., quarterback Mike Wartes of Hereford and halfbacks Cole Fraley of Borger and Jimmy Lisle of Rule.

Sophomore defensive starters are Tony Gorman of Hereford, an end; linebackers Bruce Davis of Odessa and Steve Rogers of Sunray and corner backs Scott Hindman of Borger and Juan Garza of Alamo.

The 10 sophomore starters aren't as inexperienced, however, as it might appear on first glance. Fraley is a third-year sophomore as he was red-shirted last fall after transferring from Texas Tech. Gorman also sat out last fall after transferring from Tech and Rogers started on the varsity as a linebacker at Western State in Colorado as a freshman and sat out last year as a red-shirt.

The Buffalo coaching staff, because of a lack of depth at the three running back positions in the Wishbone attack, are holding their top running backs out of contact work most of this week during drills.

Coach Gene Mayfield also planned to work more this week on his passing attack.

"We haven't spent a great deal of time throwing the ball during the first two weeks, but we have some receivers who can run and catch, so we had better make use of them," he said.

Mayfield was speaking mainly

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Disgusting as it might be to the civilized world the butchery that took place at the Olympic games is nothing to what has been going on in the communist world for more than a half century.

It was Lenin who really introduced terror as a tool of government in the prelude to communist takeover of Russia.

It has been a tool of communist government ever since. It was used in China, Cuba and Hungary and is being used to this day in Eastern Europe.

It was used in both South and North Vietnam by the Reds and is being used right now. There is nothing like terror to bring a civilian population to heel.

It will be used MOST extensively once we leave South Vietnam.

Don't get me wrong, I'm against further sacrifice of American lives in Vietnam if we don't intend to win. But I have no illusions that PEACE will settle over the countryside when there is no longer an American presence. There will be a blood bath.

I was amazed when I read Wednesday morning that George McGovern would meet and commiserate with out of work space engineers in Houston.

How McGovern can face them is more than I know when it is he and his party which are advocating cutbacks in space and aircraft expenditures.

As far as unemployment statistics are concerned, a great deal of this is pure myth.

I don't know very many employers today who couldn't use another qualified employee or two.

I talked to an executive last week who interviewed a dozen girls for a secretarial position without filling the job. None of the applicants were qualified. One girl applied and during the interview admitted that she could neither type nor take shorthand.

Another employer in Amarillo told me that after having advertised for a typist he interviewed 37 applicants without finding a single one who could type well enough to fill his job.

The truth is that many of our kids are being graduated from institutions and sent into the market place empty handed with nothing to sell.

Some of the courses being taught today remind me a lot of the Dogpatch university named after good old Senator Jack S. Phogbound. Good old Jack S. insisted that PU offer some specialty unique to his institution.

Lil Abner was finally graduated with a degree in mud. He couldn't do much with his sheepskin but he was plenty dirty.

You know the same bunch that raised so much hates at the Democratic convention in Chicago was at the Republican convention in Miami this year doing the same thing.

The most striking thing about them is that they move into a beautiful park like Flamingo Park in Miami smelling like a vast herd of overheated goats.

They spread VD and pot for a few days and then move out leaving tons of debris costing thousands of dollars to clear out and all the time they're yelling at the top of their lungs: "We're for ecology!"

I guess I resent the young being lumped in with this kind of riff raff and I think young people resent it too.

I know a lot of young people of voting age who are pretty solid citizens. Most of them are idealistic but so was I when I was one and twenty and I know for certain that without a dream there can be no achievement — no improvement.

They're not going to be dictated to. They're not going to wear short hair and narrow ties just because we tell them to do it.

But they're out of diapers and as a group they're not about to foul a world they know they're going to have to live in a lot longer than their parents.

The tenderest scene of the Olympics for me was David Wottle, 800 meter gold medal winner, apologizing to the American people for not taking off his hat while the Star Spangled Banner was being played in Munich.

I felt so sorry for this fine young athlete that tears were in my own eyes. He had held his hand over his heart and in the excitement of the moment forgot to doff his cap.

I think he did his country great honor and I would like to see him as principal speaker at the Chamber of Commerce banquet next spring if it can be arranged.

In other business, the commissioners approved the raising of municipal court fines, which may be collected by the court clerk when the defendant enters a guilty plea.

Highest priced offense now is leaving the scene and failing to report an accident. The charge will draw a new fine of $25.

Several other $20 fines were added to the list: for no operators license, for contesting for speed, for illegal registration and for disregarding officer direction or disregarding emergency equipment.

New fines were also approved for violations involving the impounding and issuance of citations for dogs or cats running at large.

First offenders for this violation will be fined $5. Subsequent offenses will reap fines of $10 and $20.

The city fine schedule has not been updated since the late 1950s.

Commissioners asked Loundler to prepare an ordinance which calls for churches in the downtown and central business area to provide off-street parking at the rate of one parking space for every four seats in the main sanctuary.

The planning and zoning commission last week recommended the ordinance be drawn.

Commissioners appointed Blakely Fargason, a city employee about three months, as fire marshal. Fargason replaces Glenn Metcalf, who recently resigned his position with the city.

Hutton said Tuesday he feels of the 60,000 population in Randall County that 27,000 may be the peak in the number of residents even eligible to vote.

More than 200 county service-men serving overseas have registered to vote and requested ballots.

Absentee balloting begins Sept. 18.

Navajos Re-Lay Train Rails

About 120 Indians from a Navajo reservation at Gallup, N.M., are staying in silver railroad cars near the Canyon Santa Fe depot. They are re-laying rail on a 49-mile stretch between Canyon and Finney, about eight miles north of Plainview.

One of the gang crew members is Daniel Joe.

Joe said there are no men left on the reservation when he and

bers returned to talk of things they better understood—students.

Jacobs said enrollment in the schools this week reached 2,898 students, including 909 in Rex Reeves, 449 in Gene Howe, 827 in the junior high and 713 in the high school.

Last year's enrollment at a comparable time was 2,741.

Jacobs reiterated that he foresees no real problem this year but said he is studying the possibility of using portable classrooms on some campuses.

"Your real space problem is created by numbers of students and program expansion," he said. "We've had both."

Jacobs said the Canyon district is one of the few in the 26 counties of the Panhandle which is showing an increase in enrollment.

"It's an indication of our economy," Moore said. "If our economy wasn't good, they wouldn't be moving in here."

the other 119 workers are gone on Santa Fe jobs.

quick, but it's not very big, with the offense averaging between 170 and 175 pounds each.

Another weakness Mires said is lack of depth.

"But, I wouldn't trade my first 11 or anybody else's first 11," he said.

Mires says he expects a strong Canyon team to take the field Friday.

"We feel like Canyon throws the ball real well," he said. "We think a lot of Wayne Todd (180-pound junior full-back), Matt Hanson (senior fullback) and Bob Counsellor (220-pound guard and tackle)."

"I think Canyon is better than they were last year."

"We'll come there very humble—not for any country tail-kicking—but very humble."

Probably offensive starters will be:

When asked if they like the railroad work and all the traveling, Joe smiled slightly and said they did.

Many of the Indians went home to Gallup for the Labor Day weekend.

When asked what his family did while he was gone, Joe was non-committal.

The new rails Joe and his fellow workers are putting down are re-conditioned from old rails into a "ribbon" type at a rail-welding plant. Each is about 1440 feet.

The joints of these longer rails are welded into one continuous rail as they are put down.

The long rails are made from old used rails, which are still in good shape and no longer needed.

When Daniel Joe and his fellow Indians are finished with their job, trains going from Canyon to Finney will no longer make that "clickety-clack" sound as the new rails will have been welded into one continuous rail.

Fraley showed some of the running style in Saturday's scrimmage which made him a high school All-American half-back at Borger. He ripped off 160 yards in only six carries, scoring on runs of 75 and 36 yards.

Ballet Brio, scheduled for November 19, brings a youthful company of three ballerinas and their three male partners under the direction of Thomas Andrew, one of America's leading young choreographers.

During the last decade or so, Andrews has established himself on the Manhattan dance scene as both creator and teacher. In recent seasons he has been constantly occupied staging ballets for the Metropolitan Opera and the New York State Theatre in the new Lincoln Center, the Philadelphia Opera, and other major companies.

Launched in the Berkshire Mountains in the summer of 1968, the Berkshire Chamber Players features Herbert Tichman on clarinet and flute, Ruth Tichman at the piano, Irving Becker, on violin and viola, and Daniel Steinetz, cellist.

The versatility of the Berkshire performers and the variety of their programs have proved most attractive in their tours throughout the United States. Each member is a virtuoso in his own field. Tichman is on the faculty of the Juilliard School in New York, and has made extensive tours with his wife as pianist in ensemble groups. Becker, formerly first violinist with the Pittsburgh Symphony, is currently on the faculties of Cazenovia College and Colgate University. Steinetz has played regularly with Leopold Stokowski's American Symphony Orchestra and the New Jersey Symphony.

New Department Evolving In City

A new department is slowly evolving in Canyon city government. City Manager George Louder said Tuesday a new code enforcement office should be in full swing at city hall in about a year and a half.

Sunday Classes Stress Christian In Modern Life

As a result of a meeting on Aug. 1 of representatives of adult classes, the First United Methodist Church will start three new study groups on Sunday, Sept. 10, at 9:30 a.m.

The Adult Bible Studies, "The Bible Speaks to Issues of Our Times," will meet in Room 2, and will be led by Dr. and Mrs. Ross Dee Staton. Dr. Staton is in the department of social work at West Texas State University. The purpose of the study is to discover the relevance of biblical teachings and principles to problems of the modern world.

"The Christian in Today's World" led by Mrs. Gene Sunderman, will meet in Room 3. This study deals with what it means to be a Christian in contemporary society.

The Christian Faith in Life Series, "The Art of Communicating," will be led by Dr. Ray Hinders, Nutritionist for Producers Grain Corporation and Rick Jackson, instructor in government at WTSU. Its central message is "Through communicating, we come to know persons. Through knowing persons, we come to know God."

All interested members and friends of First United Methodist Church are invited to enroll in the classes, which will continue through November.

Scouts Seek Parents' Help

By TROYCE MULHERIN GREETINGS:

HELP! HELP! HELP! Now, we all know what likeable people the Guy Bufkins are. A very lovely Siamese cat, being an excellent judge of character, decided to take up residence at the Bufkin Home. She was so pleased with her adoptive home, she promptly gave birth to three darling kittens. The onliest problem with this arrangement is that Todd Bufkin is highly allergic to the pretty kitties, and the Bufkins urgently need to find a new home for this feline family. So this is a glorious opportunity for someone to become adoptive parents and help the Bufkins out of their predicament by calling 352-8803 with the offer of a new home for the kittens.

A VERY HAPPY birthday to Mrs. Archie (Margaret) Davis on September 7th.

SPRING—THE TIME of beginning, the time of new life, the time of renewed hopes and dreams. Spring—the time of the wedding of Anita White and Duane Harp. Anita, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy White, is very happily displaying the engagement ring given to her by Duane, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harp. While this young couple is awaiting the happy day, Duane is busy being a sophomore at Texas A & M, and Anita is busy being a sophomore at West Texas State University. Anita is also trying to keep her mind on being a Girl Scout leader for a Cadet Girl Scout troop and her part-time job at Charlie White Beef Company. Best wishes to you both with rapidly passing days, too.

MARK MCCLENNY, SON of Mr. and Mrs. E.T. McClenny of Route Two, had double cause to celebrate on his birthday on August 29th. Only three days before, he was notified that he had earned the rank of Sergeant. Mark and his wife, Linda, are now stationed in Alaska with the United States Army. Mark is a Canyon High School graduate and is now serving as a surgical specialist with the Medics. Congratulations on the promotion and happy on the day, Mark.

THE SHELBY ROBINSON family will be doing some double time celebrating this month. Son Joel, a fourth grader at Gene Howe, has a birthday on the 7th; and, son Barry, a third grader, observes his birth on the 8th. The boys won't share the swats or the cakes, but will share the celebrating. Happy birthday to each of you.

MRS. CECIL (BEVERLY) Hutcheson is the leader of the second grade Brownies at Gene Howe. Twenty of these Scout type Brownies will hold their first meeting today, Thursday, September 7th, immediately after school at the Hollywood Baptist Church. They will be meeting every Thursday, same time, same place. And, Mrs. Hutcheson reminds the mothers that arrangements will need to be made to pick up their respective Brownie at 5:00 o'clock, as she does not have transportation available.

BEVERLY AND HER husband, Cecil Hutcheson, have just recently moved into the Gene Howe area and are living at 8411

Lamont. They have four children. Renee is in the second grade, and Curtis, George and Jessica are pre-schoolers. Cecil is employed by Bell Helicopter. Welcome to the Gene Howe territory; and thank you, Beverly, for helping with those darling little Brownies.

SPEAKING OF SCOUTS, Mrs. Phyllis Ormsby, a District Leader out of the Scout office in Canyon, is conducting a Neighborhood meeting today at 9:30 a.m., for mothers interested in being Scout leaders. This meeting will be held at the Scout office in Canyon at 1605 Third Street. Prospective leaders will receive some very helpful information at this meeting. If you are unable to attend, but would like to work with the Scouts, please call Mrs. Ormsby at 655-3478. The need for leaders is urgent and immediate. And, mother, do not fret if you haven't done anything like this before. The Scout office sponsors excellent training programs, one such starting in September. An additional training period is scheduled for October. These training sessions will be held in Amarillo and the office furnishes babysitting for mothers participating in the courses. Not only that, seasoned Scout workers will be at your beck and call for help. Try it—you'll like it! (So will your daughter).

SPEAKING SOME MORE of Scouts—That parents Rally will be held at Gene Howe School tonight at 7:30 p.m., to introduce parents of boys interested in cubbing to the Scout program. Cub Scouting is the program of the Boy Scouts for boys in the third grade 7 years of age, 8 and 9 years of age. Boys who are 10 years of age can join the Webelos Scouts. The Webelos Scouting program is for all boys ten years of age, whether they have been Cub Scouts before or not. The lovely Marla Phillips, daughter of Margie and Bill Phillips, will become one of those "New Young Voters" we hear so much about as of the 10th of September. Happy birthday, Marla, and happy voting—hope you always pick only winners in every way.

ANOTHER LOVELY YOUNG lady having a birthday this month is Tracy Betty. Tracy is the daughter of Gail and Gene Betty and celebrates on the 9th. Quite frankly, Tracy is so enamored with her new role of kindergarten pupil, that she hasn't placed any orders for her birthday celebration yet. Happy birthday, Tracy.

THE LOVE of flowers and a special talent for handling them have opened new vistas for Mrs. Haskel (Rheena) Ballard and her sister, Sue Phaxton. Not knowing what was to come, Rheena gladly "did" the flowers for a friend's wedding. Everything was so lovely, a friend of the friend requested Rheena's services for her wedding, and then a friend of the friend of the friend—well, the whole thing mushroomed and now Rheena and Sue are busily in business. The ladies are presently working out of Rheena's home on Western and furnishing complete floral services. Plans for a shop and their own greenhouse are in the mill. Best of luck to you ladies on this pleasant and aromatic undertaking, known as "Flowers by Rheena".

ALL THOSE SMILING, happy faces belonging to the children in the kindergarten class at Gene Howe come under the responsibility of one Mrs. Carole Hollingsworth. The need for this class is great, and to have a person with Mrs. Hollingsworth's capabilities and talents enhances our good fortune. Mrs. Hollingsworth has taught high school drama, has worked in private kindergartens, and has taught in the Head Start program. She has studied kindergarten at West Texas State University and has taught creative dramatics and story telling in the education department at West Texas—this being only a brief resume of her background and experience.

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH'S PERSONAL philosophy that, "Every child brings a gift of some kind to the classroom," is the framework on which her teaching procedures are built. She feels that it is the responsibility of the teacher to help the child detect, develop and share this gift. To fulfill this responsibility, a variety of intriguing methods are employed. The children are happily familiar with a number of puppets. For instance, Alphabet Annie adds a little zip to the old ABC's. Another puppet named Peabody enhances the language arts program with story telling and poetry. Ned, who purports to be a number expert, is often gleefully corrected by the children.

CHILDREN AND FOOD are synonymous, and the little ones often do counting exercises with their orange sections and M & M's before consuming their "learning aides." Once a week everyone in the class cooks. Last week they made chocolate pudding, with one young man remarking that it was, "Pretty good around the lumps."

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH IS very excited about what the class is accomplishing, and the children love every minute at school. She is extremely pleased with the atmosphere at Gene Howe and remarked that the entire school is imbued with an air of creative and exciting learning.

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH IS married to Jerry, an attorney in private practice. They have three children. Hart is twelve and lives and breathes ballet. She is working under a Ford Foundation scholarship and studied in Fort Worth this summer. Hart has been honored with a scholarship to study in New York next summer. Being rather bashful about her accomplishments, please don't let Hart know you know. Hunter is eight years old and has a passion for swimming. Heather is four and one-half and presently simply enjoys being the youngest member of the family and in on everyone's activities. The Hollingsworths live in a marvelous old old house on Tyler Street in Amarillo, complete with high high ceilings, six fireplaces and a history of ghosts!

A VERY HAPPY to Kala Davlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Davlin, who celebrates every year about this time on the 11th.

THERE ARE PRESENTLY 453 children enrolled at Gene Howe, and if all their parents joined, we would certainly have a humdinger PTA.

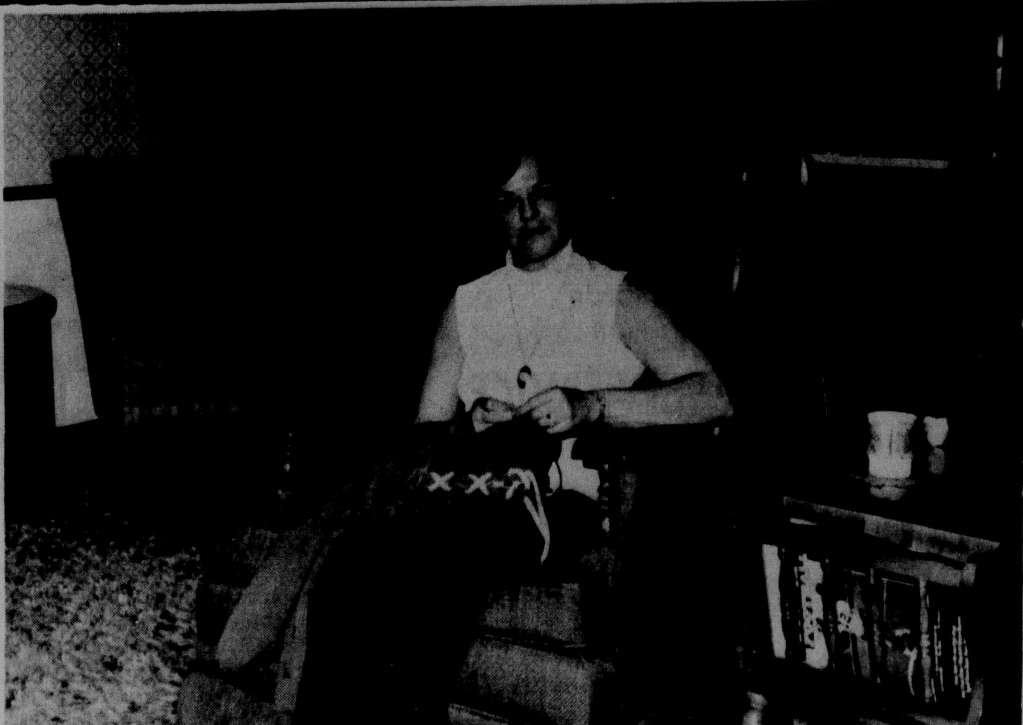

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall, and thank you for today. Troyce 352-6053

Mrs. Mary Jean Mayfield, wife of the head football coach at West Texas State University, pauses while ripping a stripe off her son's football pants.

Coach's Wife's Role Is Stabilizing Force

By LINDA LOCKETT

With three football teams to follow and a household to keep running as smoothly as possible, how does Mrs. Mary Jean Mayfield, wife of the West Texas State University head football coach, manage everything?

Whether it's leaving notes for her husband or preparing meals to eat in shifts, Mrs. Mayfield seems to be the stabilizing, calming factor in a busy family.

One person described Mrs. Mayfield as a "mystery woman." Perhaps this is because her football coach husband and football-playing sons and active college senior daughter are more often seen, but Mrs. Mayfield's importance seems to be great in the active family.

It is she who prepares the special steak at the exact time for 17-year-old Steve before his football scrimmage.

It is also she who rips out the tiny stitching of his stripe on the purple football pants. ("I don't know why they don't want the stripe anymore.")

It is she who tries to attend every scrimmage and game of her husband's team, Steve's high school team and 12-year-old Stan's junior high team (I've always been so involved with athletics.)

It is she who talks proudly about her 21-year-old daughter, Rhon, and about her special education studies and piano-playing hobby. ("Rhon really likes West Texas State.")

And it is she who goes along with the family on fishing, hunting, and skiing trips. ("I tried snow skiing—but I'd rather watch. I'm not agile like Steve or Rhon.")

Mrs. Mayfield, who was originally from Pennsylvania, moved to Texas when she was six and graduated from Pampa High School.

She and her husband have been married 23 years. They met at WTSU, where he was on the football team after he had returned from a two year stint in the Army. "The college has really changed," said Mrs. Mayfield.

After Mayfield graduated, the couple stayed in Canyon two years, while he was an assistant coach at WTSU under Frank Kimbrough. Then, he was assistant coach in Levelland for a year, after which he went to Littlefield for four years.

Then, it was to Borger for seven years, Odessa for six years and finally back to Canyon.

"We really haven't moved that much—not like some coaches who move every year," said Mrs. Mayfield.

"You do get attached to a town when you've been there—probably too long," admitted Mrs. Mayfield, who said that her family had missed Borger and then Odessa.

"We miss our friends in Odessa. We make trips down there and they come up here," Mrs. Mayfield said. "They have a busload coming up here for Gene's first home game, and he was really happy about that."

"I'm going to try to go to all the out-of-town games—I did last year," said Mrs. Mayfield, who added that the boys go too—if it doesn't interfere with their games.

What does Mrs. Mayfield do when her husband's team loses? "I just don't say anything—after you've lost, there's not much you can say," she answered. "After a while, we'll talk about it, but not at first."

The Mayfield family seldom has a definite schedule. "I'm never sure when the boys or Gene will get in. I usually feed the boys and Rhon and later Gene," said Mrs. Mayfield.

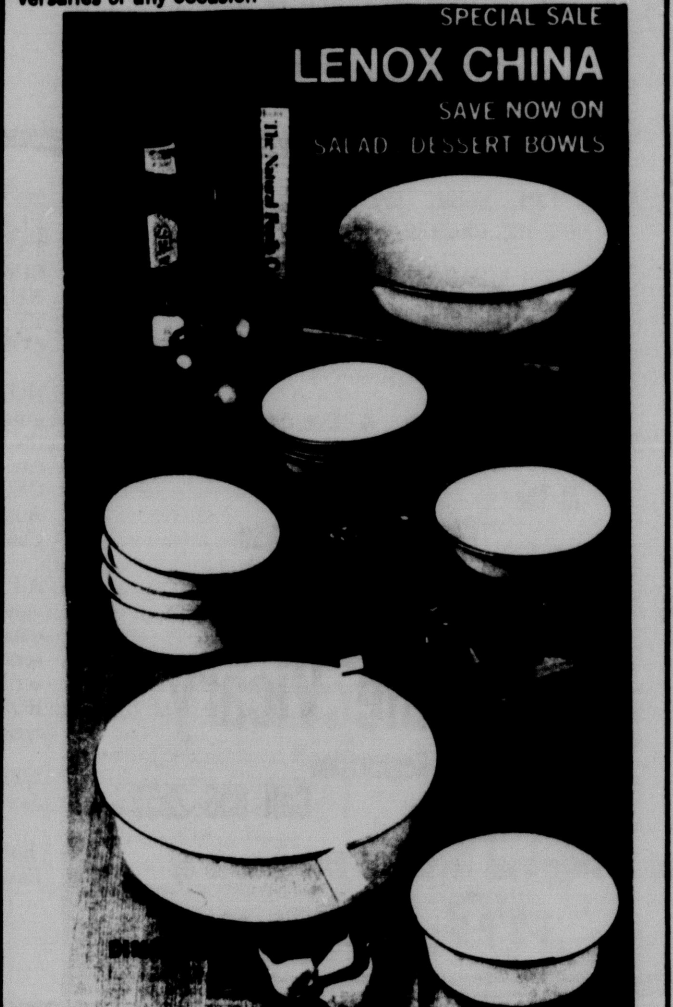

"I try to keep things from being too hectic," she added.

In her spare time, Mrs. Mayfield plays bridge, sews and refinishes picture frames or decoupages. "I'm going to take a class in decorative art this fall in Amarillo on Tuesday mornings—then Stan's games are on Tuesday afternoons—I'll be busy," said the football coach's wife.

The wife supporting Gene Mayfield and his children really isn't so "mysterious," perhaps just less often seen.

Not in the limelight, Mary Jean Mayfield may be found sewing her daughter an afghan or sitting on the sidelines with the other WTSU coaches' wives, while her calming, stabilizing personality is reflected through her family.

Palisades Palaver

Edwards Host Labor Day Fete

By VICKI HOOKER
WEDDING BELLS TOL-LED last Friday night for our neighbor, Raymond Smith, and Lola Cruz. Vows were solemnized in the San Jacinto Baptist Church of Amarillo before the families of Raymond and Lola. Following the ceremony, the couple honeymooned right here in the Palisades.

LOLA IS EMPLOYED by SIC and Raymond is a produce manager for Furr Food. Lola, we welcome you to our community, and to both you and Raymond, we wish you every happiness in your life together.

WE EXTEND DEEPEST sympathy to Onnie Atkinson in the recent death of his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Gilbert, of Amarillo.

LURN AND LENA Edwards really celebrated Labor Day with a bang as they entertained and fed 21 people! Headed the guest list was Lena's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Palmer, and their four sons and their families. They all numbered 16. Also, at the Edwards' was their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and their two daughters and one of the girl's boyfriends.

ON THE MENU were hamburgers, red beans and potato salad and all the trimmings, topped with a lot of fun and laughter. All had a very enjoyable day, and if we'd known about it earlier, I know of at least two more people who would have helped finish off that good food!

THE 1971-72 PALISADES Board will have its last meeting of the year this coming Tuesday, Sept. 9 at Lum Edwards'. Among other things on the agenda will be setting a date for the fall picnic, at which time we will elect officers and collect dues. Again, the meeting will be Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m. at Lum Edwards'.

THAT PALISADES TRIO has done it again! Sunday night in Dumas Joe Moss, Jamie Walker, and Randy Carthel rode away with all the honors. Joe won second in motocross in the 250 cc class and Jamie won second in the 100 cc class. Both Joe and Jamie were awarded $15. Randy won first places in the 250 cc class and in the open class for a total of $50. You three guys made a great showing and we're proud of you! Congratulations.

I WONDER IF the gas company ever gets tired of coming out here and putting the Walker's gas meter back in place? Well, no one was brave enough to ask the repair man who came out Labor Day to set the thing back up again after a car had rolled in to it and knocked it over! He was the same man who came the last time when a trailer, which was being pulled up the hill just South of Charlie Hooker's property, rolled back and flattened the meter. And undoubtedly the school bus has had problems with it because of the position it's in. But some good has come of it. At least the gas company is kept on its toes, and its repairmen in practice, and the meter never feels neglected!

GIRLS, ARE YOU looking for a new place to get your hair done? One that offers fast service in a friendly atmosphere? Well, we've got just the thing for you! Our neighbor Betty Wright, just got her license and is raring to go. Her shop at 5227 Astoria in Amarillo opened Sept. 6 and she welcomes all the Palisades women. Shampoo and set is only $3.50. The shop is not hard to find. Just turn south on Teckla, off 34th and go two blocks. Astoria is a short street just west of Teckla. So go over and see her. She will welcome your business!

EVEN THOUGH I couldn't get in touch with the Jim Taylors, we welcome them back to the Palisades. They lived here two years ago, moved out, and have just recently moved their trailer back again. They had a chance to buy their lot back, so they took advantage of it. The Taylors have a son in the Army and a daughter at home. Mr. Taylor is employed by Gilvin-Terrill. Again, welcome back to the Palisades!

CONGRATULATIONS TO RICK and Glen Copley. They are both the proud owners of 250 cc Huskavarnas. Only difference is Rick's is a motocross and Glen's is a cross-country. (Whatever that means!) Anyway, that's the new "buzz" you've been hearing.

NEIGHBORS, NEWS HAS been scarce lately. I sure could use your help. (I still have a phone, you know. 622-1439) See you next week!

Mrs. R.A. Neblett, 1100 5th Ave., reminisces about her dog, Mack, that sat by her in her second grade classes. Mack even received a report card from Mrs. Neblett's teacher, Mrs. Yoe.

Dog Receives

Good Grades

Mary had a little lamb. And Mrs. R.A. Neblett, 1100 5th Ave., had Mack. When Mrs. Neblett was in second grade in Canyon her four-year-old dog Mack, followed her to school and sat by her desk during classes.

In fact, Mack was so conscientious about school attendance, he received a report card.

Mrs. Neblett said, "As I recall, he got very good grades especially in deportment (citizenship)."

"The children were crazy about him," said Mrs. Neblett, who added that she thought Mack was part collie and spitz.

In Mrs. Neblett's second grade class, taught by Mrs. Yoe, Mack was called upon to act in the children's skit of "The Boy Who Cried Wolf." Of course, Mack was supposed to be the wolf, but "he didn't look very vicious." "He just strolled across the room" said Mrs. Neblett laughingly.

Mack just went to school one year. School officials did not want him to go when Mrs. Neblett entered third grade. "We had a hard time making him stay home," she said, explaining that a bell rang in the morning before school and Mack would hear it and start to school—without her if she wasn't ready.

Right after World War I, Mrs. Neblett dressed up as a Red Cross nurse for a celebration parade and Mack was the Red Cross dog.

Mack lived a long time, Mrs. Neblett reminisced. He died at the age of 15 or 16 in 1926 when Mrs. Neblett was attending the University of Texas.

Mack was buried in the back yard of Mrs. Neblett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Burrow. Mrs. Neblett's mother told her that the neighborhood children came to Mack's funeral.

Things have changed in Canyon since the school building where the junior high now stands housed the entire Canyon School System; but every now and then, a lonely dog still wanders into school, perhaps like Mack used to do.

You can't get a good job without experience.

We'll give you both.

There are plenty of jobs in the want ads. Unfortunately, almost all the good ones ask for experienced help.

But, in today's Army, we'll hire you at $288 a month to start. No experience necessary. We'll give you free meals, free medical and dental care, and 30 days paid vacation a year. And the training and experience in almost any job you want. A job you can make a career of. In the Army, or out of it.

To get complete details talk it over with your local Army Representative.

Today's Army wants to join you.

Happy Coach Should Be All Smiles

With most of his players returning starters and a line which averages about 200 pounds, Happy Cowboy Coach Robert Criswell should be all smiles.

He may not smile all the time, but he's enthusiastic about his team's chances at the district title.

Criswell's Cowboys continued pre-season drills last week and capped the workouts with a scrimmage against Vega Friday night.

The Happy team goes against Claude at 8 p.m. Friday at Claude in the season opener.

"The team is looking pretty good," Criswell said last week. "The offense is way ahead of the defense so far as progress is concerned. I think offense is by far our strongpoint right now."

A primary asset of the Cowboys is their experience. Many have started on the varsity squad for three of four high school years.

Umbarger News 600 Enjoy Fish Fry

By SUSAN DOLLE

SIX HUNDRED PEOPLE from Umbarger, Dawn, Hereford, and Wildorado, enjoyed the fish fry provided by Farmer's Elevator of Dawn last Friday night when manager Harold Dillehay served catfish grown by the 7-L Catfish Farm. Highlight of the evening was a presentation of a 1972 pickup to Mr. Walt Beavers who is retiring from his work at the elevator. Mr. Beavers had been an employee for seven years.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR for September 28 when the Umbarger Community Association will hold its fall meeting. Mr. Jim Freeman of the Texas Highway Department will present a slide program, "New Life Signs." The slides are intended to help you become familiar with the new traffic symbols now being introduced. In addition, Mr. Freeman will answer any questions concerning driving. The association will also make plans for future projects. Young

Evening Of Dancing Planned Sat., Sunday

"An evening of dance with light and sound" will be at 8:15 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of Palo Duro Canyon State Park, according to William A. Moore, show producer.

The performances were the joint idea of Moore and Neil

William A. Moore, associate professor of speech at West Texas State University, is the producer of "an evening of dance," which will be at 8:15 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of the Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Moore said the cast will include performers who were in "TEXAS" this summer.

and old are welcome to attend.

CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN Doctrine classes will begin September 17 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger. Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers, coordinator, has listed the following teachers for the 1972-73 school year: Mrs. Tom Sanford and Mrs. Vincent Meyer, kindergarten; Mrs. Jack Brandt and Mrs. Jim Skarke, 1st grade; Mrs. Bernard Wilhelm and Mrs. Bernard Grabber, 2nd grade; Mrs. Ray Gerber and Mrs. Carroll Adams, 3rd and 4th grade; Mrs. Marion Hicks and Mrs. Bernard Hartman, 5th and 6th grades; Mrs. John Meckman, junior high; Vincent Ramaekers and Mrs. Robert Koch, freshmen and sophomores; Ed Wieck and Don Dolle, junior and seniors; and Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Lindemann, young adults. Classes will be held at 9:00 Sunday mornings.

SYMPATHY IS EXTENDED to the family of Anna J. Friemel. Mrs. Friemel, who died early Sunday morning, had been a resident of Umbarger since her marriage in 1908 to Clem Friemel, except for six years spent near Hereford. Coming from Schulenberg, Mrs. Friemel made her home in Umbarger, rearing four children: Mrs. W.L. Weaver of Borger, Mrs. Sylvester Batenhorst of Umbarger, Alvin and Vincent Friemel of Umbarger.

INTERESTS IN HER later years included friendships with older women in the community, quilting and light work in the yard. The octogenarian spoke much of the time in German and wrote only in that language. The memory of their mother and grandmother will long remain with her survivors.

MR. AND MRS. John Wieck and Donna traveled with Mrs. Alan Hicks and Mrs. Sam Kirkland to Austin over the Labor Day weekend to visit with another daughter, Linda Hess. It was a perfect time for the sisters to compare notes on families and home.

AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING to elect officers of the Umbarger 4-H Club will be at 8 p.m. Sept. 8 in the Umbarger Knights of Columbus Hall.

DARROLL ADAMS, SPONSOR, said the meeting is open to any interested boys and girls.

Moore said "after the fantastic turn-out" for the Originals production, they decided to plan another program with many of the performers being members of the "TEXAS" cast this summer.

Besides the host Amarillo dance group, performers will include members of the Lubbock Civic Ballet directed by Suzanne Aker and The Dixieland Singers of Amarillo Tascosa High School directed by Frank Friesbie.

Hess is over-all director for the event, and James Kemmerling is technical director. Pat Jarrett will be in charge of the light and sound booth.

Two numbers from the "TEXAS" originals will be repeated, said Moore. They are "Shaft" choreographed by Rene Clemente and McGrew's Zoo staged and by costumed Dalinda Bond.

Moore said the costumes for the "Shaft" number are black and white, and the dancers do "marvelous" geometric designs with their costumes.

Combining ballet with jazz, the Amarillo dance group will perform "Interweave," set to music by the Beatles. They will also present "Sprites," a whimsical piece set to music by John Langberry; "New Orleans" set to music of Harry Nilsson; and the "Pas Deux" from "The Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky.

The Lubbock Civic Ballet will perform "City of 11 Gates," a modern dance set to music in the style of the Far East.

The Dixieland Singers will present a medley of popular songs.

Included in the production will be "Fantasy of Light and Sound," a display by the technical staff, to show the range of special effects possible in the amphitheater.

Dancers appearing in the Palo Duro production include Vicki Morris, Julliana Hess, Kathy Denko, Sarah Dunlap, Sherri Dyer, Danielle Frazier, Gayla Carver, Teri Blish and Sharon McCarthey.

Also, Marc Lanham, Matt Walker, Derryl Yeager, Jim Holston, Billy Black, Mike McKenzie, Chris Miller, Jan Bettis, Paula Knerr, Leesa Lohoefer, Roxanne Bartush, Anson Thomas, Rene Rigby, Julie Brantley and Carol Wilkerson.

Tickets for the performances are $1 for general admission and $2 for reserved seats in the top ten rows.

Advanced reservations can be made by calling the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation Office in Canyon or by writing "Dance," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015.

General admission tickets may be purchased at Cooper & Melin in Amarillo, at the Heritage office and at the Amphitheatre box office prior to each performance from 6:30 p.m. until show time.

Proceeds will go toward new drama and dance productions and for scholarships in the arts.

shows someone is working on public relations. The latest one noted that the common ice cube can be one of the most valuable remedies for a variety of ailments. It kills pain, helps prevent infection, controls bleeding and swelling—and costs almost nothing.

Apply ice or ice water directly to a burn. There'll be very little swelling, blisters won't appear for minor burns and healing will be more rapid. Thanks, Ma Bell.

Enrollment Decline Impact On Finances Not Yet Assessed

Bill Byrd slowly makes a move as T.S. Stevenson, Jr., looks on in deep thought. Chess is becoming more popular everywhere in the wake of the international match in Iceland recently.

Almost 800 fewer students have registered for classes this fall at West Texas State University, but officials say they cannot yet evaluate the financial impact the drop in enrollment will cause.

Dr. Donald Cates, registrar and dean of admissions, said 6,415 students had registered through late registration hours Saturday.

The figure compares with a 7,179 figure which reflected the number of students enrolled at a comparable period in the fall of 1971.

Total enrollment last fall was 7,351.

Cates expects total enrollment this fall to be only slightly above the 6,415 mark.

Enrollment at the university hit a peak in the fall of 1969 when 7,935 students registered for attendance. Since that semester, enrollments have steadily declined. The number fell to 7,905 in 1970 and 7,351 in 1971.

Cates said several areas in the university reflect increases in enrollment this term. These are primarily in industrial education, sociology, chemistry and nursing.

Accurate figures on enrollment breakdown—by class and by course—will not be available until after the 12th class day. And, until that time, no university official will be able to fully assess the reasons for the drop in enrollment.

WTSU Financial Vice President Virgil Henson said Monday he won't be able to determine the financial impact of the drop in enrollment until after the 12th class day report.

He said the university's funding is based on the number of semester credit hours students take and not on a head count number of students.

"It may well be that this is a drop in part-time students," he said. "We may be up in full-time people."

If, in fact, the WTSU enrollment shows an increase in full-time students it is possible the university state appropriation might be increased, also.

"If it turns out our semester credit hour total is really down, it will affect our appropriation for the legislature," he said.

Henson cited the possibility that more students might be retained through the spring semester and this would have a positive effect on funding.

"I think some people are being scared more than they should be," Henson said, in referring to the enrollment decrease. "We may not be down in semester credit hours."

Henson said the decrease in students will have no effect on the university's ability to repay outstanding bonds issued for construction of the activities center. Student fees pay part of the bond debt.

"We had a very safe margin on that," he said. "Now, we just don't have as much cushion, but

we won't have any problem meeting the payments."

University officials began a small-scale effort last year to recruit students to WTSU. They said, though, they felt the effort would have little if any effect on enrollment this fall.

A special committee to study recruitment possibilities began recently on campus.

Registration Hits Record In County

With the deadline only a month away, voters in Randall County have already registered to cast their ballots in the November election in record numbers.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton said most recent figures indicate that 24,464 residents have registered to vote.

Registration continues through Oct. 7 for the November 7 election.

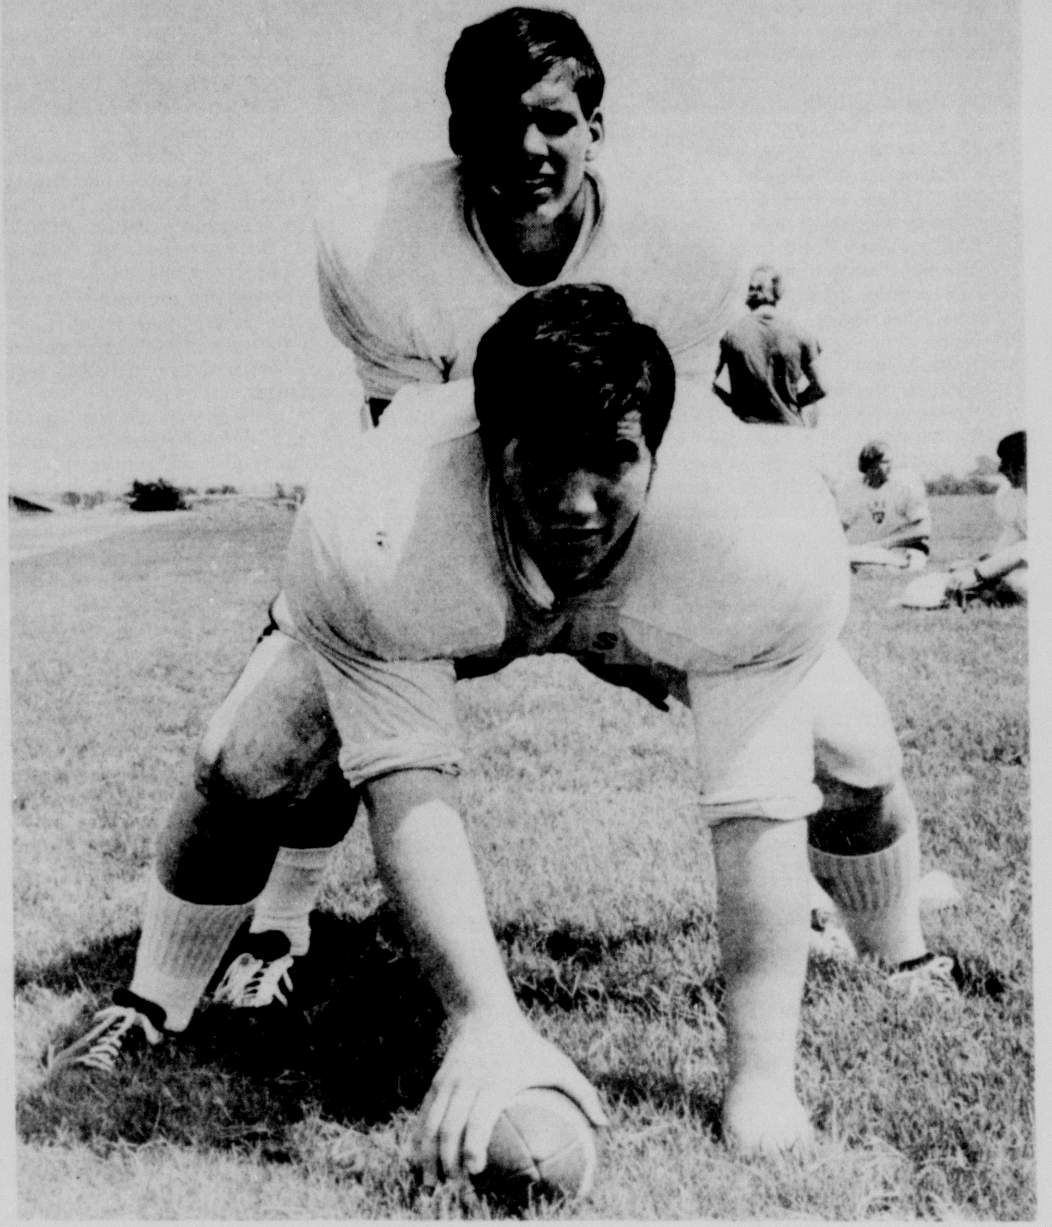

Previous high for registration in the county was 22,635 in 1968.

"We're already ahead and by Oct. 7, I suspect we'll have 27,000 registered," Hutton said.

In anticipation of this number, Hutton is ordering ballots and other voting material in lots of 30,000.

The November balloting will be the first national election in which residents 18 years of age

Junk Auto Ordinance Passed Despite Protests

Canyon City commissioners passed a strict junk car ordinance Tuesday night, but only after an hour of discussion with Commissioner Felix Pierce and a local resident contesting the ordinance.

The new law, which parallels one on the state books and which would become effective in at least 24 days, places concise strictures on owners of junk vehicles in the city.

Pierce voted against the ordinance, contending it denies the car owner the right to own property and do with that property as he wishes.

"If a man owns his property, I think he ought to be allowed to keep it and that's why I won't vote for the ordinance," Pierce said.

The ordinance outlines procedures which may be used by the city to impound junk cars which do not comply with the law.

Charles Sykes appeared before the commission, complaining that the ordinance would cause financial hardship to residents who are rebuilding cars in the city.

The ordinance states that it is unlawful for any person to have a junked car on the real property of another person or on a public street and that it is unlawful for any person who owns property to allow a junked car to be located on his property.

If a property owner wants to have a junked car on his property he must put the car inside either a five-foot solid fence or a garage.

The ordinance also declares junked cars a public nuisance "detrimental to the safety and welfare of the general public, tending to reduce the value of private property, to invite vandalism, to create fire hazards, by producing urban blight."

The ordinance contains a specific procedure to be used before a junked car could be impounded.

City Manager George Louder said that in just one section of Canyon 68 junked cars appear to fit the definition in the ordinance.

He said he has contacted wrecking service which will pro-

Hunsley Is Honored For Rotary Tenure

A long-time Canyon developer, Arch Hunsley, has been honored in this month's issue of The Rotarian, publication of Rotary International for a perfect 46-year attendance record.

Hunsley is one of 27 men in more than 1,000 Rotary Clubs throughout the world honored for perfect attendance.

Hunsley hasn't missed a Rotary Club meeting in 46 years. In attendance, he is surpassed, according to the magazine, by only five other Rotarians, who have perfect slates for as many as 52 years.

During ceremonies last week at two Amarillo Rotary Clubs, Hunsley was honored for his record.

Hunsley has been a member of the Canyon Rotary Club since the mid-1940s. He has been a member of Rotary since he first joined the Amarillo club in October 1946.

Rotary Club attendance rules allow members, who have missed meetings at their home clubs,

to make up those missed meetings at other area clubs.

So, while Hunsley has missed meetings in Canyon, he has made up those meetings in various towns throughout the Panhandle.

In fact, during his 46-year membership, Hunsley said he's made up meetings in Canada, and many of the 48 continental United States.

Hunsley said he was a traveling salesman for four years but still managed to keep his attendance record clean.

"I sometimes made three club meetings in a week," he said. "I've made many and many a town."

The Canyon resident said he never really had the intention of keeping a perfect attendance record.

"It's the obligation of every Rotarian to keep up," he said. "You can't enjoy the programs if you don't come."

Canyon Rotarian Arch Hunsley shows his picture in the September issue of the Rotarian, publication of Rotary International. Hunsley was honored in the issue for a perfect attendance record for 46 years as a member of Rotary.

Ballet And Chamber Musicians On Ticket For Concert Series

The Ballet Brio, a ballet ensemble of six billed for Nov. 19, the Berkshire Chamber Players on Feb. 7, and another attraction, as yet unannounced, make up the program being offered by the Community Concert Association as they begin their annual drive for membership.

The membership drive will officially begin Sunday with a kick-off tea for workers from 3-5 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Gerald Schultz, association president, 1703 Creekmore.

Expressing hopes for the success of the drive, Mrs. Schultz said, "We on the Community Concert Association Board always try to select programs of the highest quality that will be of interest to people here in Canyon. We hope many people will buy memberships and come out to our concerts."

Following the tea will be a renewal drive the week of Sept. 10-17. The drive for new members begins on Sept. 25 with a dinner at 7 p.m. at the Episcopal University Center for all workers.

Memberships in the concert series cost $10 for adults and $5 for students, from college age down. In addition to the three concert scheduled for presentation at the Canyon High School auditorium, members may attend concerts in Borger, Lubbock, and Clovis under a reciprocity agreement with Community Concert Associations in those towns.

Lynx To Test Canyon Strength Friday

Speedy Spearman First Foe For Canyon

Four years ago, Clark Mires, then a Canyon assistant football coach, was a prophet of doom.

In fact, Mires became famous for weekly sob stories about how badly his Canyon High junior varsity team was going to be beaten.

Wringing his hands and with a tear in his eye, Mires would tell Canyon Booster Club members that all hope was lost for his team.

It so happened that Mire's junior varsity team was almost singularly outstanding as it romped past foe after foe for a perfect season.

This year, the tables are turned, and Mires is still singing the blues as head coach of the Spearman Lynx.

His blues have a hopeful air, though, as he revs up his team to come to Canyon Friday night for a season opener against Canyon's Eagles.

While you couldn't say Ron Mills is joining Mire's song, he is cautious in his assessment of Canyon's chances against the Lynx.

This fall's opener begins at 8 p.m. in Kimbrough Stadium in Canyon.

"Spearman looks strong," Mills says. "They just whipped the number one team in Class A in Oklahoma in scrimmage."

"They've got experience and size and speed."

It'll be the first in a tough schedule of games for the Eagles, who are defending district champions.

Even so, Mills is pleased with his Eagles, and their recent performance in scrimmage against Friona.

"The first team defense only gave up six first downs in our two scrimmages," Mills said. "The offense moved the ball well Friday night. We averaged seven yards per carry."

The Canyon boys are high-spirited during this final week of practice before the season begins.

One seasoned starter said Tuesday that Monday's practice "was the best practice we've had since I've been here."

The Eagles return four of offensive and four defensive starters to the line-up this fall.

And, experience could be a major factor in Friday night's tilt. The Lynx return 10 defensive starters and nine offensive starters to their lineup.

"We shouldn't beat Canyon," Mires says, raising eyebrows from his Canyon JV days. "I'm serious. We shouldn't be able to beat them, but if we do beat them we shouldn't lose a game all season."

Mires feels his team has a strong chance to win their district, providing injuries don't interfere.

"I think we have good speed and we throw the ball well," he said.

The speedster and ball thrower is Mike Floyd, the defending 100-yard dash champion for that district. Floyd has run the 100 in 9.8, and he'll be working from the slot-T formation to unleash his passes.

Mires said his team may be

Trustees Study Financial Maze

School board members stepped into the confusing world of formulas, indices and abbreviations Tuesday night when they were led through a three-hour mental tour of the school district's financing.

"I know it must be confusing to you," Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board at one point, "because even those of us who are familiar with it have trouble."

In the middle of the lesson in school-state-district financing, the board took a breather to examine once again the proposed $2.6 million 1972-73 budget.

The budget was altered for presentation Tuesday to include $30,000 of additional funds made available when school board members hiked district taxes last week. The $30,000 is budgeted for use on special projects.

A budget hearing was scheduled for Sept. 19 for final review of the proposed budget.

Tax Assessor-Collector Conway Kuykendall started off Tuesday night's marathon finance session with a review of tax office operations.

Kuykendall presented maps and statistics to show how tax valuations for property in the district are figured.

He said houses are graded according to structure, size, and accessories—from A+ to E- for taxing purposes.

Land is also graded according to type and use of soil.

Kuykendall said mobile home taxes are figured according to size and cost, and age.

"Mobile homes are really growing here," he said. "There are 18 mobile home parks in the county and 648 mobile homes in the district."

Under questioning by Board President Dudley Moore, Kuykendall said he believes a sufficient tax base exists in the district to allow for future budgets to come.

After the three-hour fact and figure session, the board members

Sophomores Now Make Up Almost Half Of Buffalo Team

The old saying of a college team losing a game for every sophomore it starts may be true, but West Texas State University football coach Gene Mayfield has his fingers crossed with hopes that the saying is far from true.

In fact, Mayfield would certainly be glad if just the opposite is true. Should the Buffaloes line up against Drake in Des Moines, Ia., today instead of Sept. 16, they would probably have 10 sophomores in the starting lineup on either offense or defense.

After Saturday's scrimmage, the Buffaloes have five starters on offense who are sophomores and five on defense.

The starters on offense among the first-year varsity players are tight end Merced Solis of Mission, guard Jim Jeffers of Hobbs, N.M., quarterback Mike Wartes of Hereford and halfbacks Cole Fraley of Borger and Jimmy Lisle of Rule.

Sophomore defensive starters are Tony Gorman of Hereford, an end; linebackers Bruce Davis of Odessa and Steve Rogers of Sunray and corner backs Scott Hindman of Borger and Juan Garza of Alamo.

The 10 sophomore starters aren't as inexperienced, however, as it might appear on first glance. Fraley is a third-year sophomore as he was red-shirted last fall after transferring from Texas Tech. Gorman also sat out last fall after transferring from Tech and Rogers started on the varsity as a linebacker at Western State in Colorado as a freshman and sat out last year as a red-shirt.

The Buffalo coaching staff, because of a lack of depth at the three running back positions in the Wishbone attack, are holding their top running backs out of contact work most of this week during drills.

Coach Gene Mayfield also planned to work more this week on his passing attack.

"We haven't spent a great deal of time throwing the ball during the first two weeks, but we have some receivers who can run and catch, so we had better make use of them," he said.

Mayfield was speaking mainly

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Disgusting as it might be to the civilized world the butchery that took place at the Olympic games is nothing to what has been going on in the communist world for more than a half century.

It was Lenin who really introduced terror as a tool of government in the prelude to communist takeover of Russia.

It has been a tool of communist government ever since. It was used in China, Cuba and Hungary and is being used to this day in Eastern Europe.

It was used in both South and North Vietnam by the Reds and is being used right now. There is nothing like terror to bring a civilian population to heel.

It will be used MOST extensively once we leave South Vietnam.

Don't get me wrong, I'm against further sacrifice of American lives in Vietnam if we don't intend to win. But I have no illusions that PEACE will settle over the countryside when there is no longer an American presence. There will be a blood bath.

I was amazed when I read Wednesday morning that George McGovern would meet and commiserate with out of work space engineers in Houston.

How McGovern can face them is more than I know when it is he and his party which are advocating cutbacks in space and aircraft expenditures.

As far as unemployment statistics are concerned, a great deal of this is pure myth.

I don't know very many employers today who couldn't use another qualified employee or two.

I talked to an executive last week who interviewed a dozen girls for a secretarial position without filling the job. None of the applicants were qualified. One girl applied and during the interview admitted that she could neither type nor take shorthand.

Another employer in Amarillo told me that after having advertised for a typist he interviewed 37 applicants without finding a single one who could type well enough to fill his job.

The truth is that many of our kids are being graduated from institutions and sent into the market place empty handed with nothing to sell.

Some of the courses being taught today remind me a lot of the Dogpatch university named after good old Senator Jack S. Phogbound. Good old Jack S. insisted that PU offer some specialty unique to his institution.

Lal Abner was finally graduated with a degree in mud. He couldn't do much with his sheepskin but he was plenty dirty.

You know the same bunch that raised so much hates at the Democratic convention in Chicago was at the Republican convention in Miami this year doing the same thing.

The most striking thing about them is that they move into a beautiful park like Flamingo Park in Miami smelling like a vast herd of overheated goats.

They spread VD and pot for a few days and then move out leaving tons of debris costing thousands of dollars to clear out and all the time they're yelling at the top of their lungs: "We're for ecology!"

I guess I resent the young being lumped in with this kind of riff raff and I think young people resent it too.

I know a lot of young people of voting age who are pretty solid citizens. Most of them are idealistic but so was I when I was one and twenty and I know for certain that without a dream there can be no achievement — no improvement.

They're not going to be dictated to. They're not going to wear short hair and narrow ties just because we tell them to do it.

But they're out of diapers and as a group they're not about to foul a world they know they're going to have to live in a lot longer than their parents.

The tenderest scene of the Olympics for me was David Wottle, 800 meter gold medal winner, apologizing to the American people for not taking off his hat while the Star Spangled Banner was being played in Munich.

I felt so sorry for this fine young athlete that tears were in my own eyes. He had held his hand over his heart and in the excitement of the moment forgot to doff his cap.

I think he did his country great honor and I would like to see him as principal speaker at the Chamber of Commerce banquet next spring if it can be arranged.

In other business, the commissioners approved the raising of municipal court fines, which may be collected by the court clerk when the defendant enters a guilty plea.

Highest priced offense now is leaving the scene and failing to report an accident. The charge will draw a new fine of $25.

Several other $20 fines were added to the list: for no operators license, for contesting for speed, for illegal registration and for disregarding officer direction or disregarding emergency equipment.

New fines were also approved for violations involving the impounding and issuance of citations for dogs or cats running at large.

First offenders for this violation will be fined $5. Subsequent offenses will reap fines of $10 and $20.

The city fine schedule has not been updated since the late 1950s.

Commissioners asked Louden to prepare an ordinance which calls for churches in the downtown and central business area to provide off-street parking at the rate of one parking space for every four seats in the main sanctuary.

The planning and zoning commission last week recommended the ordinance be drawn.

Commissioners appointed Blakely Fargason, a city employee about three months, as fire marshall. Fargason replaces Glenn Metcalf, who recently resigned his position with the city.

When asked if they like the railroad work and all the traveling, Joe smiled slightly and said they did.

Many of the Indians went home to Gallup for the Labor Day weekend.

When asked what his family did while he was gone, Joe was non-committal.

The new rails Joe and his fellow workers are putting down are re-conditioned from old rails into a "ribbon" type at a rail-welding plant. Each is about 1440 feet.

The joints of these longer rails are welded into one continuous rail as they are put down.

The long rails are made from old used rails, which are still in good shape and no longer needed.

When Daniel Joe and his fellow Indians are finished with their job, trains going from Canyon to Finney will no longer make that "clickety-clack" sound as the new rails will have been welded into one continuous rail.

Hutton said Tuesday he feels of the 60,000 population in Randall County that 27,000 may be the peak in the number of residents even eligible to vote.

More than 200 county servicemen serving overseas have registered to vote and requested ballots.

Absentee balloting begins Sept. 18.

About 120 Navajo Indians from Gallup, N.M., are busy re-laying rails on the train tracks between Canyon and Plainview.

Navajos Re-Lay Train Rails

About 120 Indians from a Navajo reservation at Gallup, N.M., are staying in silver railroad cars near the Canyon Santa Fe depot.

They are re-laying rail on a 49-mile stretch between Canyon and Finney, about eight miles north of Plainview.

One of the gang crew members is Daniel Joe.

Joe said there are no men left on the reservation when he and the other 119 workers are gone on Santa Fe jobs.

The tight-lipped Joe said his Indian group usually worked in Texas, and their next destination is somewhere in South Texas. Their jobs usually last two weeks, he said.

bers returned to talk of things they better understood—students.

Jacobs said enrollment in the schools this week reached 2,898 students, including 909 in Rex Reeves, 449 in Gene Howe, 827 in the junior high and 713 in the high school.

Last year's enrollment at a comparable time was 2,741.

Jacobs reiterated that he foresees no real problem this year but said he is studying the possibility of using portable classrooms on some campuses.

"Your real space problem is created by numbers of students and program expansion," he said. "We've had both."

Jacobs said the Canyon district is one of the few in the 26 counties of the Panhandle which is showing an increase in enrollment.

"It's an indication of our economy," Moore said. "If our economy wasn't good, they wouldn't be moving in here."

quick, but it's not very big, with the offense averaging between 170 and 175 pounds each.

Another weakness Mires said is lack of depth.

"But, I wouldn't trade my first 11 or anybody else's first 11," he said.

Mires says he expects a strong Canyon team to take the field Friday.

"We feel like Canyon throws the ball real well," he said. "We think a lot of Wayne Todd (180-pound junior full-back), Matt Hanson (senior fullback) and Bob Counsellor (220-pound guard and tackle)."

"I think Canyon is better than they were last year."

Probably offensive starters will be:

ly of split ends Carl Brown and Kenneth Sellers. Both were members of last year's Buffalo 440-yard relay team which ran a school record 40.6 clocking. Tight end Merced Solis is also a talented receiver, as are halfbacks Lisle, Fraley and Rusty Tucker.

Fraley showed some of the running style in Saturday's scrimmage which made him a high school All-American half-back at Borger. He ripped off 160 yards in only six carries, scoring on runs of 75 and 36 yards.

Cliff Longest, recently appointed sheriff of Randall County, was honored Friday night at a corn on the cob cook out by the Randall County Sheriff's Posse.

Longest, his deputies and their families were present.

Ballet Brio, scheduled for November 19, brings a youthful company of three ballerinas and their three male partners under the direction of Thomas Andrew, one of America's leading young choreographers.

During the last decade or so, Andrews has established himself on the Manhattan dance scene as both creator and teacher. In recent seasons he has been constantly occupied staging ballets for the Metropolitan Opera and the New York State Theatre in the new Lincoln Center, the Philadelphia Opera, and other major companies.

Launched in the Berkshire Mountains in the summer of 1968, the Berkshire Chamber Players features Herbert Tichman on clarinet and flute, Ruth Tichman at the piano, Irving Becker, on violin and viola, and Daniel Steinetz, cellist.

The versatility of the Berkshire performers and the variety of their programs have proved most attractive in their tours throughout the United States. Each member is a virtuoso in his own field. Tichman is on the faculty of the Juilliard School in New York, and has made extensive tours with his wife as pianist in ensemble groups. Becker, formerly first violinist with the Pittsburgh Symphony, is currently on the faculties of Cazenovia College and Colgate University. Steinetz has played regularly with Leopold Stokowski's American Symphony Orchestra and the New Jersey Symphony.

With possible additions to come later, the list of workers from whom tickets may be ordered include: Mrs. Charles Harter, Mrs. R.A. Neblett, Mrs. T.H. Knighton, Mrs. Glen Dowlen, George Eason Mrs. J. Lee Gilmore, Mrs. A.C. Haley, Mrs. Ples Harper, W. M. Higdon, Murle Mordy, Raymond Raillard, Mrs. D.F. Sanders, Joe Gidden, Mrs. K.H. Owens, Jay Findley, Mrs. Kirk Kite, Charles Veazey, Dr. H.T. All other contests are single rider events.

Lt. Col. John Childs is head of the Chamber of Commerce committee to coordinate the relay race.

Some 17 Canyon merchants donated merchandise gifts to be given as prizes.

The Women's Division of the Chamber is responsible for a poster contest to advertise the "Little 500" as the races are being called.

Larry Hooper is in charge of safety education and Eddie Knowles the safety rodeo. Charlie Boston is handling preparation and distribution of information. Police Chief Al Stewart will handle inspection of bicycles. Denny Park and the K Club will oversee performance and skill.

Chamber President David West and Mayor Manly Bryan will hand out awards.

New Department Evolving In City

A new department is slowly evolving in Canyon city government.

City Manager George Loudder said Tuesday a new code enforcement office should be in full swing at city hall in about a year and a half.

Primarily, the new office is just what its name implies.

"In the past, many ordinances have been administered by the

Sunday Classes Stress Christian In Modern Life

As a result of a meeting on Aug. 1 of representatives of adult classes, the First United Methodist Church will start three new study groups on Sunday, Sept. 10, at 9:30 a.m.

The Adult Bible Studies, "The Bible Speaks to Issues of Our Times," will meet in Room 2, and will be led by Dr. and Mrs. Ross Dee Staton. Dr. Staton is in the department of social work at West Texas State University. The purpose of the study is to discover the relevance of biblical teachings and principles to problems of the modern world.

"The Christian in Today's World" led by Mrs. Gene Sunderman, will meet in Room 3. This study deals with what it means to be a Christian in contemporary society.

The Christian Faith in Life Series, "The Art of Communicating," will be led by Dr. Ray Henders, Nutritionist for Producers Grain Corporation and Rick Jackson, instructor in government at WTSU. Its central message is "Through communicating, we come to know persons. Through knowing persons, we come to know God."

All interested members and friends of First United Methodist Church are invited to enroll in the classes, which will continue through November.

News Brief

The Rainbow Girls will have a pop bottle raid on Saturday, Sept. 9, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., according to Kim Tully, in charge of the activity.

Proceeds from the raid will be used to send girls to Grand Assembly in Ft. Worth next summer.

related," Loudder said, "that they could be handled together in their enforcement."

A part of the new office's responsibility will be for pollution abatement.

"We expect to be able to do a more adequate job," Loudder said.

In conjunction with the effort to form the new office, the city is updating and changing all existing ordinances which are outdated.

Blakely Fargason, who has been with the city government about three months, will head the new office.

"His main responsibility is still going to be building inspection," Loudder said. "This is the main volume of work."

While Fargason may have enforcement responsibility for many of the ordinances, the primary responsibility for administration of the ordinances—like the zoning ordinance—will still lay with other entities. The zoning ordinance, for example, is administered by the city planning and zoning commission and the city commission.

Fargason joined the city June 1. He previously taught at West Texas State University.

Seymours Have New Baby Girl

A new daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Seymour of Claude at Neblett Memorial Hospital on August 19, weighing 7 lbs. 5 ozs. and measuring 20 inches. Her name is Julie Anne.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G.L. Davis, 407 9th St. The paternal grandparents are deceased.

The father operates Seymour Backhoe and Ditching Service in Claude. He and his wife have four other children, Jimmy, 17, Jeanie Kay, 16, Karen 12, and Susan, 7.

Christian Encounter Is Theme

"An Encounter With Christ" will be the theme uniting revival services to be conducted by Calvary Baptist Church over a three-day period next weekend. The Rev. Mel Hardin, pastor, will preach the message.

Leading the music will be Dr. T.W. Hunt, associate professor of piano and organ at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. Dr. Hunt received a BS degree and doctorate in musicology from North Texas State University.

One of the great interests of T.W. Hunt is music in foreign missions. He developed the first music in missions course in a theological seminary.

Services are to be held nightly Sept. 8, 9 and 10 at 7 p.m. and also at 10:45 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 9 and 10. The sermon topics are scheduled as follows: Friday evening, "A Social Snob Encounters Christ"; Saturday morning, "A Dangerous Psychotic Encounters Christ"; Saturday evening, "A Pillar of the Establishment Encounters Christ"; Sunday morning, "A Divorcee Encounters Christ"; and Sunday evening, "A Crooked Politician Encounters Christ."

The public is invited. A nursery will be provided for small children.

The first attraction offered by Community Concerts is Ballet Brio, reputed to bring to the concert hall "all the glamour of romantic, neo-classic and contemporary ballet styles." Complete with sparkling costumes, decors and lighting effects, the group is scheduled to appear at 4 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 19.

Scouts Seek Parents' Help

By TROYCE MULHERIN GREETINGS:

HELP! HELP! HELP! Now, we all know what likeable people the Guy Bufkins are. A very lovely Siamese cat, being an excellent judge of character, decided to take up residence at the Bufkin Home. She was so pleased with her adoptive home, she promptly gave birth to three darling kittens. The onliest problem with this arrangement is that Todd Bufkin is highly allergic to the pretty kitties, and the Bufkins urgently need to find a new home for this feline family. So this is a glorious opportunity for someone to become adoptive parents and help the Bufkins out of their predicament by calling 352-8803 with the offer of a new home for the kittens.

A VERY HAPPY birthday to Mrs. Archie (Margaret) Davis on September 7th.

SPRING—THE TIME of beginning, the time of new life, the time of renewed hopes and dreams. Spring—the time of the wedding of Anita White and Duane Harp. Anita, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy White, is very happily displaying the engagement ring given to her by Duane, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harp. While this young couple is awaiting the happy day, Duane is busy being a sophomore at Texas A & M, and Anita is busy being a sophomore at West Texas State University. Anita is also trying to keep her mind on being a Girl Scout troop leader for a Cadet Girl Scout troop and her part-time job at Charlie White Beef Company. Best wishes to you both with rapidly passing days, too.

MARK MCLENNY, SON of Mr. and Mrs. E.T. McCleny of Route Two, has his birthday on August 29th. Only three days before, he was notified that he had earned the rank of Sergeant. Mark and his wife, Linda, are now stationed in Alaska with the United States Army. Mark is a Canyon High School graduate and is now serving as a surgical specialist with the Medics. Congratulations on the promotion and happy on the day, Mark.

THE SHELBY ROBINSON family will be doing some double time celebrating this month. Son Joel, a fourth grader at Gene Howe, has a birthday on the 7th; and, son Barry, a third grader, observes his birth on the 8th. The boys won't share the swats or the cakes, but will share the celebrating. Happy birthday to each of you.

MRS. CECIL (BEVERLY) Hutcheson is the leader of the second grade Brownies at Gene Howe. Twenty of these Scout type Brownies will hold their first meeting today, Thursday, September 7th, immediately after school at the Hollywood Baptist Church. They will be meeting every Thursday, same time, same place. And, Mrs. Hutcheson reminds the mothers that arrangements will need to be made to pick up their respective Brownies at 5:30 o'clock, as she does not have transportation available.

BEVERLY AND HER husband, Cecil Hutcheson, have just recently moved into the Gene Howe area and are living at 8411

Lamont. They have four children. Renee is in the second grade, and Curtis, George and Jessica are pre-schoolers. Cecil is employed by Bell Helicopter. Welcome to the Gene Howe territory; and thank you, Beverly, for helping with those darling little Brownies.

SPEAKING OF SCOUTS, Mrs. Phyllis Ormsby, a District Leader out of the Scout office in Canyon, is conducting a Neighborhood meeting today at 9:30 a.m., for mothers interested in being Scout leaders. This meeting will be held at the Scout office in Canyon at 1605 Third Street. Prospective leaders will receive some very helpful information at this meeting. If you are unable to attend, but would like to work with the Scouts, please call Mrs. Ormsby at 655-3478. The need for leaders is urgent and immediate. And, mother, do not fret if you haven't done anything like this before. The Scout office sponsors excellent training programs, one such starting in September. An additional training period is scheduled for October. These training sessions will be held in Amarillo and the office furnishes babysitting for mothers participating in the courses. Not only that, seasoned Scout workers will be at your beck and call for help. Try it—you'll like it! (So will your daughter).

SPEAKING SOME MORE of Scouts—That parents Rally will be held at Gene Howe School tonight at 7:30 p.m., to introduce parents of boys interested in cubing to the Scout program. Cub Scouting is the program of the Boy Scouts for boys in the third grade 7 years of age, 8 and 9 years of age. Boys who are 10 years of age can join the Webelos Scouts. The Webelos Scouting program is for all boys ten years of age, whether they have been Cub Scouts before or not. The lovely Marla Phillips, daughter of Margie and Bill Phillips, will become one of those "New Young Voters" we hear so much about as of the 10th of September. Happy birthday, Marla, and happy voting—hope you always pick only winners in every way.

ANOTHER LOVELY YOUNG lady having a birthday this month is Tracy Betty. Tracy is the daughter of Gail and Gene Betty and celebrates on the 9th. Quite frankly, Tracy is so enamored with her new role of kindergarten pupil, that she hasn't placed any orders for her birthday celebration yet. Happy birthday, Tracy.

THE LOVE of flowers and a special talent for handling them have opened new vistas for Mrs. Haskel (Rhene) Ballard and her sister, Sue Phaxton. Not knowing what was to come, Rhenea gladly "did" the flowers for a friend's wedding. Everything was so lovely, a friend of the friend requested Rhenea's services for her wedding, and then a friend of the friend of the friend—well, the whole thing mushroomed and now Rhenea and Sue are busily in business. The ladies are presently working out of Rhenea's home on Western and furnishing complete floral services. Plans for a shop and their own greenhouse are in the mill. Best of luck to you ladies in this pleasant and aromatic undertaking, known as "Flowers by Rhenea".

ALL THOSE SMILING, happy faces belonging to the children in the kindergarten class at Gene Howe come under the responsibility of one Mrs. Carole Hollingsworth. The need for this class is great, and to have a person with Mrs. Hollingsworth's capabilities and talents enhances our good fortune. Mrs. Hollingsworth has taught high school drama, has worked in private kindergartens, and has taught in the Head Start program. She has studied kindergarten at West Texas State University and has taught creative dramatics and story telling in the education department at West Texas—this being only a brief resume of her background and experience.

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH'S PERSONAL philosophy that, "Every child brings a gift of some kind to the classroom," is the framework on which her teaching procedures are built. She feels that it is the responsibility of the teacher to help the child detect, develop and share this gift. To fulfill this responsibility, a variety of intriguing methods are employed. The children are happily familiar with a number of puppets. For instance, Alphabet Annie adds a little zip to the old ABC's. Another puppet named Peabody enhances the language arts program with story telling and poetry. Ned, who purports to be a number expert, is often gleefully corrected by the children.

CHILDREN AND FOOD are synonymous, and the little ones often do counting exercises with their orange sections and M & M's before consuming their "learning aides." Once a week everyone in the class cooks. Last week they made chocolate pudding, with one young man remarking that it was, "Pretty good around the lumps."

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH IS very excited about what the class is accomplishing, and the children love every minute at school. She is extremely pleased with the atmosphere at Gene Howe and remarked that the entire school is imbued with an air of creative and exciting learning.

MRS. HOLLINGSWORTH IS married to Jerry, an attorney in private practice. They have three children. Hart is twelve and lives and breathes ballet. She is working under a Ford Foundation scholarship and studied in Fort Worth this summer. Hart has been honored with a scholarship to study in New York next summer. Being rather bashful about her accomplishments, please don't let Hart know you know. Hunter is eight years old and has a passion for swimming. Heather is four and one-half and presently simply enjoys being the youngest member of the family and in on everyone's activities. The Hollingsworths live in a marvelous old house on Tyler Street in Amarillo, complete with high ceilings, six fireplaces and a history of ghosts!

A VERY HAPPY to Kala Davlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Davlin, who celebrates every year about this time on the 11th.

THERE ARE PRESENTLY 453 children enrolled at Gene Howe, and if all their parents joined, we would certainly have a humdinger PTA.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall, and thank You for today.

Mrs. Mary Jean Mayfield, wife of the head football coach at West Texas University, pauses while ripping a stripe off her son's football pants.

Coach's Wife's Role Is Stabilizing Force

By LINDA LOCKETT

With three football teams to follow and a household to keep running as smoothly as possible, how does Mrs. Mary Jean Mayfield, wife of the West Texas State University head football coach, manage everything?

Whether it's leaving notes for her husband or preparing meals to eat in shifts, Mrs. Mayfield seems to be the stabilizing, calming factor in a busy family.

One person described Mrs. Mayfield as a "mystery woman." Perhaps this is because her football coach husband and football-playing sons and active college senior daughter are more often seen, but Mrs. Mayfield's importance seems to be great in the active family.

It is she who prepares the special steak at the exact time for 17-year-old Steve before his football scrimmage.

It is also she who rips out the tiny stitching of his stripe on the purple football pants. ("I don't know why they don't want the stripe anymore.")

It is she who tries to attend every scrimmage and game of her husband's team, Steve's high school team and 12-year-old Stan's junior high team (I've always been so involved with athletics.)

It is she who talks proudly about her 21-year-old daughter, Rhon, and about her special education studies and piano-playing hobby. ("Rhon really likes West Texas State.")

And it is she who goes along with the family on fishing, hunting, and skiing trips. ("I tried snow skiing—but I'd rather watch. I'm not agile like Steve or Rhon.")

Mrs. Mayfield, who was originally from Pennsylvania, moved to Texas when she was six and graduated from Pampa High School.

She and her husband have been married 23 years. They met at WTSU, where he was on the football team after he had returned from a two year stint in the Army. "The college has really changed," said Mrs. Mayfield.

After Mayfield graduated, the couple stayed in Canyon two years, while he was an assistant coach at WTSU under Frank Kimbrough. Then, he was assistant coach in Levelland for a year, after which he went to Littlefield for four years.

Then, it was to Borger for seven years, Odessa for six years and finally back to Canyon.

"We really haven't moved that much—not like some coaches who move every year," said Mrs. Mayfield.

"You do get attached to a town when you've been there—probably too long," admitted Mrs. Mayfield, who said that her family had missed Borger and then Odessa.

"We miss our friends in Odessa. We make trips down there and they come up here," Mrs. Mayfield said. "They have a busload coming up here for Gene's first home game, and he was really happy about that."

"I'm going to try to go to all the out-of-town games—I did last year," said Mrs. Mayfield, who added that the boys go too—if it doesn't interfere with their games.

What does Mrs. Mayfield do when her husband's team loses? "I just don't say anything—after

Men Charged

Three Amarillo men have been charged with theft over $50 in connection with the theft of bicycles in South Amarillo.

Arraignment was expected late Wednesday for Bruce Ray Howery, David Russell Matthews and Charles M. Beard.

Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen said the three are charged with stealing a 10-speed bicycle in the county. They face similar charges in Potter County where they are currently free on bond.

you've lost, there's not much you can say," she answered. "After a while, we'll talk about it, but not at first."

The Mayfield family seldom has a definite schedule. "I'm never sure when the boys or Gene will get in. I usually feed the boys and Rhon and later Gene," said Mrs. Mayfield.

"I try to keep things from being too hectic," she added.

In her spare time, Mrs. Mayfield plays bridge, sews and refinishes picture frames or decoupages. "I'm going to take a class in decorative art this fall in Amarillo on Tuesday mornings—then Stan's games are on Tuesday afternoons—I'll be busy," said the football coach's wife.

The wife supporting Gene Mayfield and his children really isn't so "mysterious," perhaps just less often seen.

Not in the limelight, Mary Jean Mayfield may be found sewing her daughter an afghan or sitting on the sidelines with the other WTSU coaches' wives, while her calming, stabilizing personality is reflected through her family.

Palisades Palaver

Edwards Host Labor Day Fete

By VICKI HOOKER
WEDDING BELLS TOL-LED last Friday night for our neighbor, Raymond Smith, and Lola Cruz. Vows were solemnized in the San Jacinto Baptist Church of Amarillo before the families of Raymond and Lola.
 Following the ceremony, the couple honeymooned right here in the Palisades.
LOLA IS EM-PLOYED by SIC and Raymond is a producer manager
 for Furr Food.
 Lola, we welcome you to our community,
 and to both you
 and Raymond, we wish you every happiness in your life together.

WE EXTEND DEEPEST sympathy to Onnie Atkinson in the recent death of his aunt, Mrs.
 Gertrude Gilbert, of Amarillo.
LURN AND LENA Edwards really celebrated Labor Day with a bang as they entertained and fed 21 people! Heading the guest list was Lena's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs.
 Harold Palmer, and their four sons and their families. They all numbered 16. Also, at the Edwards' was their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and their two daughters and one of the girl's boyfriends.
ON THE MENU were hamburgers, red beans and potato salad and all the trimmings, topped with a lot of fun and laughter. All had a very enjoyable day, and if we'd known about it earlier, I know of at least two more people who would have helped finish off that good food!

THE 1971-72 PALISADES
 Board will have its last meeting of the year this coming Tuesday, Sept. 9 at Lum Edwards'. Among other things on the agenda will be setting a date for the fall picnic, at which time we will elect officers and collect dues. Again, the meeting will be Tuesday night,
 7:30 p.m. at Lum Edwards'.

THAT PALISADES TRIO
 has done it again! Sunday night in Dumas Joe Moss, Jamie Walker, and Randy Carthel rode away with all the honors. Joe won second in motorcross in the 250 cc class and Jamie won second in the 100 cc class. Both Joe and Jamie were awarded $15.
 Randy won first places in the 250 cc class and in the open class for a total of $50. You three guys made a great showing and we're proud of you! Congratulations.
I WONDER IF the gas company ever gets tired of coming out here and putting the Walker's gas meter back in place?
 Well, no one was brave enough to ask the repair man who came out Labor Day to set the thing back up again after a car had rolled into it and knocked it over! He was the same man who came the last time when a trailer, which was being pulled up the hill just South of Charlie Hooker's property, rolled back and flattened the meter.
 And undoubtedly the school bus has had problems with it because of the position it's in. But some good has come of it. At least the gas company is kept on its toes, and its repairmen in practice, and the meter never feels neglected!

GIRLS, ARE YOU looking for a new place to get your hair done? One that offers fast service in a friendly atmosphere?
 Well, we've got just the thing for you! Our neighbor Betty Wright, just got her license and is raring to go. Her shop at 5227 Astoria in Amarillo opened Sept. 6 and she welcomes all the Palisades women. Shampoo and set is only $3.50. The shop is not hard to find. Just turn south on Teckla, off 34th and go two blocks. As-toria is a short street just west of Teckla. So go over and see her.
 She will welcome your business!
EVEN THOUGH I couldn't get in touch with the Jim Taylors, we welcome them back to the Palisades. They lived here two years ago, moved out, and have just recently moved their trailer back again. They had a chance to buy their lot back, so they took advantage of it. The Taylors have a son in the Army and a daughter at home. Mr. Taylor is employed by Gilvin-Terrill.
 Again, welcome back to the Palisades!

CONGRATULATIONS TO RICK and Glen Copley. They are both the proud owners of 250
 cc Huskavarnas. Only difference is Rick's is a motocross and Glen's is a cross-country.
 (Whatever that means!) Anyway, that's the new "buzz"
 you've been hearing.
NEIGHBORS, NEWS HAS been scarce lately. I sure could use your help. (I still have a phone, you know. 622-1439) See you next week!

Dog Receives Good Grades

Mary had a little lamb.
 And Mrs. R.A. Neblett,
 1100 5th Ave., had Mack.
 When Mrs. Neblett was in second grade in Canyon her four-year-old dog Mack, followed her to school and sat by her desk
 during classes.
 In fact, Mack was so conscientious about school attendance, he received a report card.
 Mrs. Neblett said, "As I recall, he got very good grades especially in deportment (citizenship)."
 "The children were crazy about him," said
 Mrs. Neblett, who added that she thought Mack was part collie and spitz.
 In Mrs. Neblett's second grade class, taught by Mrs. Yoe, Mack was called upon to act in the children's skit of "The Boy Who Cried Wolf." Of course,
 Mack was supposed to be the wolf, but "he didn't look very vicious." "He just strolled across the room" said Mrs. Neblett laughingly.
 Mack just went to school one year. School officials did not want him to go when Mrs. Neblett entered third grade. "We had a hard time making him stay home," she said, explaining that a bell rang in the morning before school and Mack would hear it and start to school—without her if she wasn't ready.
 Right after World War I,

Mrs. Neblett dressed up as a Red Cross nurse for a celebration parade and Mack was the Red Cross dog.
 Mack lived a long time.
 Mrs. Neblett reminisced.
 He died at the age of 15 or 16 in 1926 when Mrs. Neblett was attending the University of Texas.
 Mack was buried in the back yard of Mrs. Neblett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Burrow. Mrs.
 Neblett's mother told her that the neighborhood
 children came to Mack's
 funeral.
 Things have changed in Canyon since the school building where the junior high now stands housed the entire Canyon School System; but every now and then, a lonely dog still wanders into school, perhaps like Mack used to do.

Mrs. R.A. Neblett, 1100 5th Ave., reminisces about her dog, Mack, that sat by her in her second grade classes. Mack even received a report card from Mrs. Neblett's teacher, Mrs. Yoe.

Shaws Have Baby

By JAN ROWLAND
WHAT A WEEKEND! Most of our neighbors either went somewhere or had guests. Mrs.
 John Shaw of 244 La Fiesta topped everything by waiting until Tuesday morning. She had a beautiful baby girl at around 3:00 a.m. The baby weighed 8 pounds and 5 ounces, was 24 1/4 inches long, and was born in the Neblett Hospital in Canyon. Mrs.
 Shaw is president of the Siesta Plaza Womens' Auxiliary.

Mr. Shaw is vice-president of our volunteer fire department. Brother and sister of the new baby are Michael, 8, and Rhonda, 6. The children are being cared for by John's sister-in-law, Helen.

MR. AND MRS. P.L. Pitt of 120 Siesta had a houseful over the weekend. Mrs. Pitt's two sisters came. They are Mrs. Beatrice Brown from Groom, Texas, and Mrs. Cordie Jacob from Okla-

Happy Coach Should Be All Smiles

With most of his players returning starters and a line which averages about 200 pounds, Happy Cowboy Coach Robert Criswell should be all smiles.

He may not smile all the time, but he's enthusiastic about his team's chances at the district title.

Criswell's Cowboys continued pre-season drills last week and capped the workouts with a scrimmage against Vega Friday night.

The Happy team goes against Claude at 8 p.m. Friday at Claude in the season opener.

"The team is looking pretty good," Criswell said last week. "The offense is way ahead of the defense so far as progress is concerned. I think offense is by far our strongpoint right now."

A primary asset of the Cowboys is their experience. Many have started on the varsity squad for three or four high school years.

Like Greg Looney. A 5-9, 150-pound halfback, Looney has started since his freshman year. He was the team's leading ground gainer last year and is expected to continue his winning ways this fall.

Then there's Chris Pearson, a senior who started last year, in the other halfback slot.

Mark Hargrave, a halfback on last year's team, will assume quarterback chores this fall.

Completing the backfield at fullback will be either Johnny Payne, a sophomore, or Stanley Morrison, a senior, split end on last year's squad.

"We have a big line, but it's fairly quick," Criswell said. "The line will average out to close to 200 pounds."

Criswell is pleased with the work of his tackles, Jim Hand, a 235-pound senior, and Don Lee, a 220-pound senior.

Stuart Tackitt, a 175-pound, Kyle Todd, 165 pounds, and Andy Hand, 240 pounds, will be trying for the guard slots.

Rocky Williams, a 205 pounder who started at that position last year, will continue with centering chores.

Ends on the '72 squad will be Gary Barnett, a returning starter, and Lonnie Tackitt.

The Cowboys will be working from a wishbone formation this year and Criswell says their offense will depend on the running of the backs to put points on the scoreboard.

Ten teams make up conference 2B, and Criswell hopes he can beat them all.

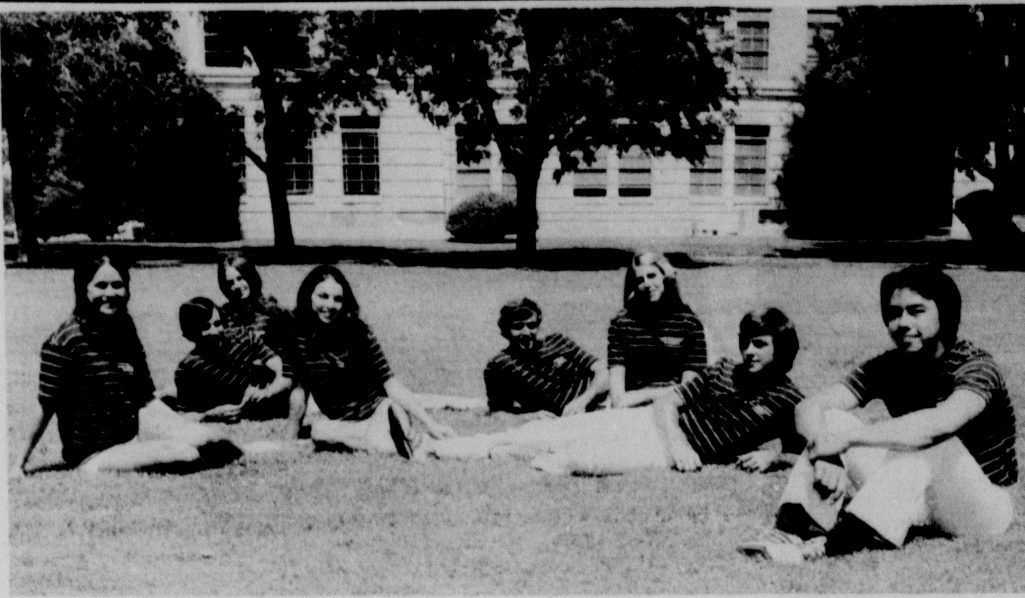

"The kids have a great attitude and want to win," he said. "We're not counting our chickens before they hatch, but we'll be disappointed if we don't win it."

The rough road to winning "it" begins this week when the Cowboys face Claude on Claude's home territory.

"Claude is tough," Criswell said. "Everyone of their kids is back and we beat them last year 40-0 so they'll be up for us this year."

Conference 2B includes teams from Amherst, Lazbuddie, Matador, Meadow, Nazareth, New Home, Sundown, Wilson and Whiteface.

The candidates will be considered for further state and national awards, with a state winner for each state and a national winner to be announced.

Cheerleaders at West Texas State University for this year are (l to r) Orinda Eikman, Childress, Chris Gerald, Canyon, Terri Roark, Vega, Jane VanDever, Sweetwater.

Stanley Raef, Amarillo, Caroline Roney, El Paso, John Jenkins, Amarillo and Greg Tung, Canyon.

600 Enjoy Fish Fry

By SUSAN DOLLE

SIX HUNDRED PEOPLE from Umbarger, Dawn, Hereford, and Wildorado, enjoyed the fish fry provided by Farmer's Elevator of Dawn last Friday night when manager Harold Dillehay served catfish grown by the 7-L Catfish Farm. Highlight of the evening was a presentation of a 1972 pickup to Mr. Walt Beavers who is retiring from his work at the elevator. Mr. Beavers had been an employee for seven years.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR for September 28 when the Umbarger Community Association will hold its fall meeting. Mr. Jim Freeman of the Texas Highway Department will present a slide program, "New Life Signs." The slides are intended to help you become familiar with the new traffic symbols now being introduced. In addition, Mr. Freeman will answer any questions concerning driving. The association will also make plans for future projects. Young and old are welcome to attend.

CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN Doctrine classes will begin September 17 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger. Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers, coordinator, has listed the following teachers for the 1972-73 school year: Mrs. Tom Sanford and Mrs. Vincent Meyer, kindergarten; Mrs. Jack Brandt and Mrs. Jim Skarke, 1st grade; Mrs. Bernard Wilhelm and Mrs. Bernard Grabber, 2nd grade; Mrs. Ray Gerber and Mrs. Carol Adams, 3rd and 4th grade; Mrs. Marion Hicks and Mrs. Bernard Hartman, 5th and 6th grades; Mrs. John Meckman, junior high; Vincent Ramaekers and Mrs. Robert Koch, freshmen and sophomores; Ed Wieck and Don Dolle, junior and seniors; and Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Lindemann, young adults. Classes will be held at 9:00 Sunday mornings.

SYMPATHY IS EXTENDED to the family of Anna J. Friemel. Mrs. Friemel, who died early Sunday morning, had been a resident of Umbarger since her marriage in 1908 to Clem Friemel, except for six years spent near Hereford. Coming from Schulenberg, Mrs. Friemel made her home in Umbarger, rearing four children: Mrs. W.L. Weaver of Borger, Mrs. Sylvester Batenhorst of Umbarger, Alvin and Vincent Friemel of Umbarger.

INTERESTS IN HER later years included friendships with older women in the community, quilting and light work in the yard. The octogenarian spoke much of the time in German and wrote only in that language. The memory of their mother and grandmother will long remain with her survivors.

MR. AND MRS. John Wieck and Donna traveled with Mrs. Alan Hicks and Mrs. Sam Kirkland to Austin over the Labor Day weekend to visit with another daughter, Linda Hess. It was a perfect time for the sisters to compare notes on families and home.

AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING to elect officers of the Umbarger 4-H Club will be at 8 p.m. Sept. 8 in the Umbarger Knights of Columbus Hall.

DARROLL ADAMS, SPONSOR, said the meeting is open to any interested boys and girls.

shows someone is working on public relations. The latest one noted that the common ice cube can be one of the most valuable remedies for a variety of ailments. It kills pain, helps prevent infection, controls bleeding and swelling—and costs almost nothing.

Apply ice or ice water directly to a burn. There'll be very little swelling, blisters won't appear for minor burns and healing will be more rapid. Thanks, Ma Bell.

Evening Of Dancing Planned Sat., Sunday

"An evening of dance with light and sound" will be at 8:15 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of Palo Duro Canyon State Park, according to William A. Moore, show producer.

The performances were the joint idea of Moore and Neil

Hess, director of the Amarillo Repertory Dance Company, after about 100 people including families of the cast, were turned away from the annual "TEXAS" Originals Aug. 6 in the Branding Iron Theatre of West Texas State University.

William A. Moore, associate professor of speech at West Texas State University, is the producer of "an evening of dance," which will be at 8:15 p.m. Saturday and Sunday in the Pioneer Amphitheatre of the Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Moore said the cast will include performers who were in "TEXAS" this summer.

Moore said "after the fantastic turn-out" for the Originals production, they decided to plan another program with many of the performers being members of the "TEXAS" cast this summer. Besides the host Amarillo dance group, performers will include members of the Lubbock Civic Ballet directed by Suzanne Aker and The Dixieland Singers of Amarillo Tascosa High School directed by Frank Frisbie.

Hess is over-all director for the event, and James Kemmerling is technical director. Pat Jarrett will be in charge of the light and sound booth.

Two numbers from the "TEXAS" originals will be repeated, said Moore. They are "Shaft" choreographed by Rene Clemente and McGrew's Zoo staged and by costumed Dalinda Bond.

Combining ballet with jazz, the Amarillo dance group will perform "Interweave," set to music by the Beatles. They will also present "Sprites," a whimsical piece set to music by John Langberry; "New Orleans" set to music of Harry Nilsson; and the "Pas Deux" from "The Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky.

The Lubbock Civic Ballet will perform "City of 11 Gates," a modern dance set to music in the style of the Far East.

The Dixieland Singers will present a medley of popular songs. Included in the production will be "Fantasy of Light and Sound," a display by the technical staff, to show the range of special effects possible in the amphitheatre.

Dancers appearing in the Palo Duro production include Vicki Morris, Julliana Hess, Kathy Denko, Sarah Dunlap, Sherri Dyer, Danielle Frazier, Gayla Carver, Teri Blish and Sharon McCarthey.

Also, Marc Lanham, Matt Walker, Derryl Yeager, Jim Holston, Billy Black, Mike McKenzie, Chris Miller, Jan Bettis, Paula Knerr, Leesa Lohoefer, Roxanne Bartush, Anson Thomas, Rene Rigsby, Julie Brantley and Carol Wilkerson.

Tickets for the performances are $1 for general admission and $2 for reserved seats in the top ten rows.

Advanced reservations can be made by calling the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation Office in Canyon or by writing "Dance," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015.

General admission tickets may be purchased at Cooper & Melin in Amarillo, at the Heritage office and at the Amphitheatre box office prior to each performance from 6:30 p.m. until show time.

Proceeds will go toward new drama and dance productions and for scholarships in the arts.

Lay Witness Mission Is Big Success

By MARY NEAL HENRY
THE LAY WITNESS Mission was a big success (and still is) at the First Baptist Church in Happy. A full schedule of meetings, meals and fellowship was held Friday through Sunday. Saturday morning, coffees were held in the homes of the C.D. Taylors, Forrest Vises, W.D. McCarleys, and Everett Culp and a coke party for the young people at the John Butlers. Small children were cared for at the Methodist Church and it was appreciated. Experiences and blessings were still being shared in various homes several mornings this week.

HAPPY JAYCEES' LABOR Day Rest Stop served free coffee, cokes, do-nuts, chewing gum, etc. to over 200 weary travelers during the weekend. People from Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, South Dakota, Ohio, Kansas, Colorado and Louisiana registered. Randy Johnson was chairman of this project. Happy Jaycee-Ettes helped as usual.

HAPPY JAYCEES PROVIDED and flew the American Flag for the Happy businesses on Labor Day. Chris Ritter is chairman of this project and he was collecting them at sunset on Monday in a most ingenious way. Very clever!

HAPPY JAYCEES ARE having a free bar-b-que and game party for all Jaycees and their wives of Region 104 at 8 p.m. on Saturday, September 9th. The place is the Swisher County Barn at the site of the Rodeo Arena East of Tulsa.

WELCOME TO HAPPY or we might even say, "Welcome back to Happy" to Mrs. Ira Pre-witt who has purchased the Irene Uesling home. Happy will be missing Irene.

NANCY (MRS. GRAHAM) Purcell picked up her painting by Mary Womack that she purchased during Happy Days Celebration. Mary titled it "Sunset on the Golden Spread." Nancy and Graham Purcell plan to hang this painting in his office in Washington, D.C. Congratulations, Artist Womack!

I RECEIVED A "thank you" in long hand from Nancy Purcell last week. She is a most pleasant person and I enjoyed entertaining her for a short time during the Happy celebration.

THE SHIPMAN REUNION held in Seymour over the weekend was attended by around one hundred fifty and by relatives as far away as Waco, Houston and Colorado. The weather was rainy there, but this group enjoyed visiting on a huge covered concrete slab in the park. Among those attending were Judy and Gene Shipman with their Mandi and Raphe; Evelyn and Rayford Shipman and Emil Ross; Hoyle and Ruby Shipman; Nan Earl, Patricia, Tonya and Jerry Doyle Greathouse of Happy; Jim and Linda Schriber of Plainview; Patsy and Bob Christenson of Lubbock; Jerry and Lillie Shipman of Hereford; Nancy and Sharrell Selvidge and their Shannon and Sonya of Alamosa, Colorado and Inez Shipman was able to attend because Sharrell and Nancy drove down for only a short time.

JOY AND BOB Stephenson were "home" in Wayside, Claude and Amarillo over the weekend. Both Joy and Bob are enrolled in Tech this semester.

BILLY DALE ANDREWS is another lucky guy at Tech this Fall.

DONNA MAGNESS IS in Dallas enrolled in Miss Wade's Fashion and Merchandising School. For those of you who'd like to wish her well, her address is Trail Apartments, Chapel Creek Road, Apt. Bldg. 9859, Apt. 2110, Dallas. Four girls are assigned to one apartment in this school, two new ones, and two who are returning for other semesters. Donna's apartment happened to be the "get acquainted" room on their arrival and she has already met several girls with whom she'll be going to class.

LEONA AND MERLE McFarland helped Donna move down. (I know how many car loads I've taken to Canyon). They returned by way of Oklahoma to visit Leona's brother, Rex Westerfield, who is very seriously ill.

DON MAGNESS UNDERWENT surgery at M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston on Friday at one and remained in recovery until noon Saturday. He will be in Room West 509B for a week and then he and Mary Ann will be at the Surrey House Motor Hotel, 8330 South Main, Houston. Don is reported doing well at this writing. Please remember he and Mary Ann.

DON AND MARY Ann Magness are presidents of the Ex-Student Association and tell me that the 1952 basketball team will also be honored. This team's captain was Shirley Elliott Payne and co-captains were Phyllis Lemmons Bradley (now of Gruver) and I. Other team members were Pat Cox Self, Neta Newsom Todd, Frances Anne Francy Miller, LaQuitta Patterson Palvadore, Mickey Bryan Woods, Nancy Walberg Smith, Marjorie Irlbeck Hollodough, Betty Vaughn Burris, Phyllis Sluder Mathis, Shirley Gazaway Leper, Marlene Stubblefield Caraway, and Martha Vaughan Hooper. We were runners-up in the Regional Tournament. One of the greatest thrills of the year was winning the Tulsa Tournament. Our coach was the grand "Bud" LeRoy Roberts. We still have the greatest respect for him!

HOME COMING IS SEPTEMBER 29th. Make plans to attend.

HAPPY OUTSCRIMAGED LEFORS Saturday night. We'll see you in Claude Friday night when the Cowboys play their first official game.

THE WRANGLERS WILL play Claude in Happy Thursday at 5:30. See ya there, too. (When one's boys are four years difference in age, you don't miss any ball games).

MR. AND MRS. Harvey Newsome have been to Center, Colorado to visit Loraine.

FRANK BRIDWELL WON the daddle at the two day Labor Day Roping in Panhandle produced by S.E. Mayo. Kenny Smith of Carlsbad, New Mexico, won the Steer Roping on Sunday. Some of you will remember Kenny because he won a team roping buckle at the last series of ropings that Happy held at the Bill Cody Arena. Cowboy Johnson of Dimmitt and Tommy Blasingame of Hereford won a big part of the average of the Team Roping. The team roping on Sunday was a "farce". Then Monday, S.E. had a "tie the knot" and "dally" team roping. Buster Record and Glen Quattlebaum won the dally roping. I think Buster Record and Tommy Record won the knot tying. Glad to hear that Buster is back in action. (He's the high school senior that the bull hurt in Perryton on August 19th). About 80 teams were present on Sunday and over 60 in each team roping Monday.

BEVERLY DOWD WAS elected Faith of the Happy Rainbow Assembly Monday night from a field of several candidates. Mary Ann Sims will be the new Worthy Advisor; Karen Sims, Worthy Associate Advisor; Rhonda Fellers, Charity and Kay Spear, Hope.

MARY ANN SIMS has planned her Rainbow installation for September 30th at 7:30 in Happy. Her term sounds well planned so this is a night you won't want to miss. Mary Ann belongs to Eugene and Ora Mary Sims.

MRS. LLOYD ANDERSON, nee Pat Williams, was honored with a bridal shower on Thursday afternoon in the Methodist Church Annex. Guests were greeted at the door by Barbara Danner, Shirley Williams and Pat Anderson; registered by Cindy Davis and Tammy Williams, and served refreshments of punch and cake, mints and nuts by Barbara Shipman and Cindy Starkey. A blue and green centerpiece adorned the table covered with a white lace cloth over blue. Hostesses were: Mary Ann Magness, Louise Stubblefield, Rosanella Payne, Barbara Shipman, Margaret Murdock, Creola Starker, Lucy Moudy, Ollie Nichols, Phyla Harman, Jo and Connie Hand, Jimmie Middleton, Ruth Aikens, Bertie LaRoe, Ann Looney, Ora Mary Sims, Joyce and Brenda Railsback, Mildred Middleton, Berneice Morris, Josephine Garcia, Nora McGavock, Cindy Starkey, Tanya McCarley, June Hancock, Zelma Selvidge, Carolyn Dietz, Pat Hargrave, LaNelle Todd, Beulah Hurst, Barbara Danner, Mary Jane Miller, Fern Wilson, Vickie Whitlow, Ernestine Danner, Coleen Schaeffer, Lena Walberg.

Culp, Lucy Moudy, Ollie Nichols, Josephine Garcia, Louise Stubblefield, and Lena and Babe Walberg. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams served this group wedding cake.

heard (or told in the biggest way) was that grade school play ground has a new slide to play on. And that is exciting if you are in the second grade.

See ya Mary Neal
